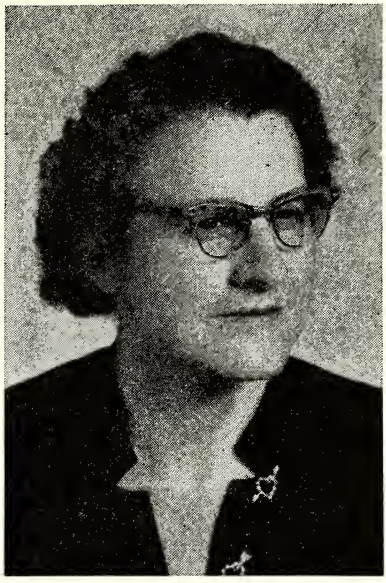
IN MEMORIAL OF MRS. LYNDA O'QUINN POWELL



MRS. LYNDA O'QUINN POWELL

We lovingly dedicate this volume of the Minutes of the Little River Baptist Association to Mrs. Lynda O'Quinn Powell, Mamers, N. C., who was killed in a highway accident on January 12, 1957.

From childhood Mrs. Powell was an active member of the Antioch Church. She served in many phases of the church work but especially with the music and youth organizations. In addition to the many duties in her home church, she faithfully served in the Associational and Regional Training Union and Young People's Missionary Organizations.

For a number of years, Mrs. Powell taught in the Boone Trail School and led in various school and community activities. For at least three years she was on the North Carolina County Council of the Teacher's Association and one year served as County President.

Lynda not only performed well the task assigned her, but was constantly going the second mile to aid others.

CONSTITUTION

1. This association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as an advisory council.

4. The association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of churches in the association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the association shall be a moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the members composing the association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual meeting.

8. It shall be the duty of the moderator to preside during the deliberations of the body, to enforce the observance of the constitution, preserve the decorum, appoint a nominating committee, appoint committees except when other provisions are made for their appointment, decide all questions of order, giving his opinion on any question under discussion, and cast the deciding vote in case of a tie.

9. It shall be the duty of the clerk to record the proceedings of each annual meeting of the association, superintend the printing of the minutes and their distribution among the churches.

10. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the sessions of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds administered by him at each annual meeting.

11. The association shall appoint annually an Executive Promotion Committee of twenty-one members, among whom by virtue of their office are to be the moderator, vice-moderator, clerk, treasurer, Sunday school superintendent of the association, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union Superintendent, Superintendent of Evangelism, Associational Brotherhood President, Director of Department of Church Music, the Associational Missionary, Chairman of Christian Literature Committee, Chairman Hospital Committee, Chairman of Social Service and Civil Righteousness Committee, Chairman of Christian Education Association Committee, Chairman of American Bible Society Committee, Chairman of Orphanage Committee, Chairman of Baptist Homes Committee. This committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the association during the interval between the meetings of the body; shall seek to promote the welfare of the churches, and their active participation in the causes fostered by the denomination; but shall be answerable to the association for its acts, and make an annual report to the association of its work. The Executive Promotion Committee shall meet once each quarter and upon other occasions on the call of the moderator.

12. The association in annual meeting shall appoint a presbytery of four members to sit with the pastor of any person whose ordination is sought, and the moderator of the association, to examine the qualifications and opportunities for work of the candidate.

13. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in October.

14. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the Executive Committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

15. This association shall have the right to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament Principles.

16. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may present a petition at the annual meeting of the body through messengers appointed for this purpose. Prior to the annual meeting the petition is to be studied by a standing committee of four members on Admission of New Churches. The committee is to be elected by the association and the moderator is to be chairman. If the association shall consent to receive such church the moderator shall extend the hand of fellowship to the messengers.

17. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

18. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon, and a sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

19. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning session of the day on which such motion will be presented.

20. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the association, who shall serve with the moderator, as the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The term of office of the trustees so elected shall be for six years, and shall be so arranged that the term of one trustee shall expire at the annual session of the association held every even year, but the trustees elected shall continue until their successors are elected or until they shall be removed or deceased. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

Morning Session

October 29, 1957

1. In the absence of the Moderator, Vice-moderator Ernest P. Russell, called the Little River Baptist Association to order at the Kennebec Baptist Church at 9:30 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday, October 29, 1957. The meeting opened with Rev. Julius Holloway leading the congregation in the singing of the hymn, "A Soldier of the Cross."

2. Rev. W. F. Gentry, pastor of the Antioch Baptist Church, at Mamers, led the opening devotion and prayer. "Our supreme need is faith in God. God's greatest appeal through Christ is 'Have Faith in God.' The Bible was to help men to find God, and by faith we receive eternal life."

3. Rev. Ernest P. Russell, the Vice-moderator of the association, presided in the absence of Moderator Paul Strickland, who was unable to attend because of a broken leg. Upon motion of Rev. L. C. Pinnix, the Clerk was directed to extend to Brother Strickland the greetings of the Association and to express to him its sympathy in his illness.

4. At the direction of the Moderator, the clerk called the roll of churches of the Association and all member churches were represented with the exception of the following:

East Erwin Baptist Church, Gourd Springs Baptist Church, Cumberland Union Baptist Church and Macedonia Baptist Church. Thereupon the presiding officer announced that a quorum was present, and upon motion duly made and seconded, the session voted unanimously that the official messengers present should constitute the Eighty-Second Session of the Little River Baptist Association.

5. The presiding officer presented the proposed program for the meeting and upon motion duly made and seconded, the program was unanimously adopted. The program as adopted reads as follows:

(A) Resolutions: Rev. J. Ben Eller, Chairman; Mr. G. R. Wells, and Mrs. R. Lewis Beal.

(B) Time, Place and Preacher: Rev. W. F. Gentry and Mr. E. W. Smith.

8. The Vice-Moderator stated that he had previously as Chairman of the Executive Committee, appointed a committee consisting of Rev. E. Weldon Johnson, Rev. Julius Holloway, and Rev. G. Scott Turner, to investigate the advisability and feasibility of this Association sponsoring a school for pastors and lay workers at Campbell College during the coming summer. Rev. Johnson was recognized, and upon presenting the report of the committee, moved that the matter be discussed at 9:45 a. m. on Wednesday, October 30th. The motion was duly seconded and adopted.

9. The Vice-Moderator, without objection, requested Rev. Julius Holloway to preside. Rev. Russell, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Little River Baptist Association, was recognized, and he presented the recommendations of the Executive Committee, which recommendations are as follows:

Executive Committee Report

For Year 1956-1957

I. Resume of Activities:

Your Executive Committee has held four meetings during the year. Your committee was divided into three sub-committees, namely Missions, Finance, and Education, for the purpose of promoting the work.

Under the guidance of your Executive Committee the work of the Association was promoted by your Missionary.

Three meetings of the Association were held. One was held in connection with the Training Union Meeting on April 15 for the purpose of conveying the title to a tract of land to the Harmony Baptist Church.

A Mission Rally was held at the Buies Creek Baptist Church in order to bid the Russell Hilliards goodbye as they were leaving for Spain under the appointment of the Foreign Mission Board.

A Religious Liberty Rally was also held at the Buies Creek Baptist Church at which time the associate director of P.O.A.U. of Washington, D. C., Rev. Stanley Lowell, was the speaker.

II. Recommendations:

A. Constitutional Change.

1. That Article Number 20 of the Constitution be amended so as to include the Moderator as a Trustee of the Association.

B. General:

1. That we commend the fine work done by the Associational Officers in Sunday School, Training Union, W.M.U., Brotherhood, and the Music Ministry.

2. That we urge all churches to cooperate to the fullest with the activities of our Associational Officers.

3. That each church, not now having such, be urged to adopt a sound business-like financial plan, and that such churches arrange to inform its membership periodically of its financial receipts and disbursements.

4. That we adopt the suggested Associational Calendar for 1958 as set forth by our missionary.

5. That we commend our Associational Missionary for his work and pledge him our full support in the new year.

6. That the churches continue to support our Associational Mission Program with an amount of equal to 3% of their budgets exclusive of their building programs.

7. That our churches support fully our State, Home and Foreign Missions and Agencies by "Special Day" offerings and through the cooperative program.

8. That the churches keep the fires of evangelism alive throughout our Association in order that the lost may be saved and trained for Christian service.

Respectfully submitted,
Ernest P. Russell,
Chairman of Executive Committee,

Upon motion duly made and seconded, the report was unanimously adopted.

10. Vice-Moderator, Ernest P. Russell, resumed the chair and recognized Brother Julius Holloway, for his report as Associational Missionary. Brother Holloway then presented the suggested Associational Calendar for the year of 1958, which calendar, upon motion duly made and seconded, was adopted. The calendar is as follows:

Brother Holloway invited the attention of the messengers to his written report in the program. Therein he pointed out the need for new Baptist Missions in our county, and called attention to the two missions that were started in the last year, one by the Lillington Baptist Church and one by the South Erwin Baptist Church. He urged that the various churches utilize the many services rendered by the Association.

11. The Moderator called upon the Associational Treasurer for his report. Thereupon, W. A. Johnson presented the treasurer's report and moved its adoption, which motion was duly seconded and the report adopted. The report as adopted reads as follows:

REPORT OF ASSOCIATIONAL TREASURER

The undersigned W. A. Johnson, Treasurer of the Little River Baptist Association, herewith makes to the Association his report covering all receipts and disbursements by him had and made during the period beginning October 1, 1956, and ending September 30, 1957, as follows:

Comment

Seven churches did not contribute to the minute fund and nine churches gave nothing for Associational Missions. Ten churches gave $50.00 or less for Associational Missions with the result that the total received for Associational Missions from nineteen of our churches was only $249.37.

Respectfully submitted, this October 1, 1957,

W. A. Johnson,
Treasurer, Little River Baptist Association.

12. Brother Julius Holloway led the congregation in the singing of the hymn, "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord."

13. In the absence of E. M. Walker, the Chairman of the Committee on Christian Education, the report of the committee, as printed in the program, was adopted. Brother Russell then presented Dr. Carlyle Campbell, President of Meredith College, who spoke on the report and directed his remarks to Christian Education in this state. He called attention to the fact that in the seven Baptist colleges in this state more than six thousand students were enrolled, and that gifts to the seven colleges totaled more than $442,000.00

14. Mrs. L. C. Pinnix was recognized and she presented the report of missions as shown on Pages 15 and 16 of the program. Mrs. Pinnix then presented Mr. Harold Cole, the student secretary for the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, who spoke on the great urgency of our mission program. Using "The Great Commission" as his theme, Brother Cole called attention to the fact that more than two million people in North Carolina alone have made no profession of faith. Of the more than 830,000 church members in this state, only forty per cent of these are enlisted and are being taught and trained in Christian giving, living and serving. Dr. Cole, while stressing the importance of state missions, invited the attention of the Association to the work that the Southern Baptist are doing in the field of missions and three large areas of the world: 1. Africa, Europe, and the Near East; 2. Latin America, and 3. The Orient. On behalf of the missionaries in the foreign fields and the mission boards, he solicited the continued prayers and support of all Christians everywhere.

15. After singing the hymn "Jesus Saves Us" by the congregation, Rev. Charles W. Stafford, pastor of the Duncan Baptist Church and graduate of the Southeastern Seminary, he delivered the annual missionary sermon. "Go Ye Unto All the World," was his text and topic for the morning. He presented a challenge to all Christians to pray for the laborers who have gone forth unto all parts of the world to carry the Christian message.

16. At the conclusion of the missionary sermon, benediction was pronounced and the session adjourned for lunch.

Afternoon Session

17. The session reconvened for the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with the singing of a hymn, following which, Rev. C. M. Hicks, pastor of the Holly Springs Baptist Church, led the devotion. He challenged all Christians to "Think less of our own achievements and be more conscious of the cause of Christ."

18. The Moderator recognized Dr. Bruce Blackmon who gave the report on the Baptist Hospital. Dr. Blackmon reported that the Baptist Hospital last year provided more than 123,000 days of bed care for 15,784 patients. He told of one of the most unique and outstanding Christian features of our Baptist Hospital—the chapel within the hospital walls. "The Chapel," he said, "has the honor of being on the front of the hospital and situated between the hospital and the Medical School with its many fascists of teaching and experimentation. Be it far more significant than mere chance that this son of religion and truth is so located as to unite into one the very latest in scientific research with the age-old art of healing and ministry to the body and soul." Dr. Blackmon presented Dr. Richard K. Young, of the Department of Religion of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital, who presented a most informative and interesting report on the many activities of our hospital.

19. Brother E. J. Lawson was recognized and he presented the report on the Baptist Children's Homes, after which he presented Dr. I. G. Greer, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Children's Homes. Dr. Greer presented interesting facts concerning the background of many of the children at the home. Many of the children in our Baptist homes come from backgrounds where both father and mother are living, but because of the conditions and environment existing in those homes, the welfare of the children was not protected. He called upon us to stop condemning the child for his shortcomings and wrong doings because, as he stated, the child is only doing what he has heard and seen adults do. He said that there was no reason why, if the child can learn the evil habits in the home, why he could not first learn to pray.

20. Brother C. R. Ammons, Chairman of the Brotherhood, was recognized and he reported on the Brotherhood of the Association, including the report on the Royal Ambassadors. He challenged all churches to establish a brotherhood and to expand those that are now existing. He invited attention to the State-wide Brotherhood Meeting to be held in Raleigh and urged as many members of the Brotherhood as possible to attend.

21. Rev. W. P. Biggerstaff of the Allied Church League, was present and was presented to speak on Social Service and Civil Righteousness. He spoke briefly of the thousands of petitions that were presented to the General Assembly of 1957, requesting a state-wide liquor referendum. There were more than 292,617 names and signatures on those petitions. Notwithstanding the petitions of all these citizens of North Carolina, the legislature failed to permit the people of North Carolina to vote on the grave question of the public sale of alcohol and whiskey in our state. He stressed the urgency and importance of Christians throughout the state of working and voting for those candidates for our General Assembly who stand for extending to the people of the state a right to vote on this important question.

Rev. Biggerstaff presented some startling statistics with reference to alcohol and whiskey in America. More than seventy million people in this country drink alcoholic beverages and more than 250,000 become alcoholics every year. He said that the statistics from the Yale University show that for every time one known alcoholic is cured, ten persons become alcoholics. There are more than four million, five hundred and eighty-nine thousand known alcoholics in America with more than sixty thousand of them residing in North Carolina. The most astounding fact, he said, is that fifty-nine per cent of Protestant church members in America drink or participate in the use of alcoholic beverages.

22. In the absence of the Rev. Billy Fox, the report on Baptist Homes for Aging was adopted as set forth in the program. Thereupon, the Rev. Charles Burchette, pastor of the Kernersville Baptist Church, and a member of the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Baptist Homes, spoke to the report. He brought to the session an interesting and informative report of the activities of the Baptist Homes for the Aging, and told of the happiness and contentness that exists among the residents of those homes.

23. The report on relief and annuity and retirement plans for 1957 was read from the program. As of July 1, 1957, in North Carolina, we had 311 active participants in the Southern Baptist Protection Report. The North Carolina Ministers Retirement Plan, which was closed to new members on January 1, 1956, now has 600 active members as compared to 787 at this time last year. This decrease is because of the transfer of many members of the Ministers Retirement Plan who would be advantaged by going into the Southern Baptist Protection. Also we have had about twenty-five members to reach retirement age and annuities have been set up for these. About ten members have died during the year and their widows are drawing benefits.

24. In the absence of Mrs. Phillip Kennedy, Rev. E. Weldon Johnson gave the report of Christian Literature, and Rev. L. L. Carpenter spoke to the report.

25. In the absence of Rev. G. Scott Turner, the report on Evangelism was read to the Association by Rev. Ernest P. Russell. Rev. Eugene Deese, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Aberdeen and member of the General Board, spoke to the report on Evangelism. He urged that as Baptist we must evangelize, it is our responsibility. Just as Paul enjoined Phillip to do the work of evangelism, Rev. Deese enjoined the Baptists of our Association to carry out the Program of Evangelism. It is hoped that in 1958, we can win 850,000 people to Christ in North Carolina. He petitioned the session that we pray to God, that we should be faithful and fruitful in evangelism.

26. At the conclusion of the Report on Evangelism, the Moderator announced that at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Association on the 30th of September, 1957, the chairman was instructed to appoint a committee of three to serve with the trustees of the Association as a Building Committee, and the committee was to be directed and instructed to make a preliminary investigation as to the ways and means of constructing a home for the associational missionary and financing the construction thereof. The committee was directed to report at 9:45 a. m. on the first day of the Annual Session of the Association. Upon motion duly made and seconded, the report of the committee was postponed until Wednesday, October 30th.

27. The session recessed for the day to be resumed on Wednesday morning, October 30th, at the Friendship Baptist Church.

28. The Association reconvened for the day at 9:30 o'clock a.m. at the Friendship Baptist Church in Bunnlevel, and opened with the singing of a hymn, followed by a devotional led by Rev. R. Lewis Beal, pastor of the Angier Baptist Church.

29. Rev. E. Weldon Johnson was recognized, and he gave notice to the session that during the afternoon session he would move that Article 20 of the Constitution be amended so as to include the Moderator as a Trustee of the Association and to provide that the term of office of the Trustees should be for six years, with one Trustee retiring every even year. He further gave notice to the session that during the afternoon meeting he would move that Article 11 of the Constitution be amended so that the Chairman of each standing committee should be an ex-officio member of the Executive Committee.

30. Rev. Julius Holloway was recognized and he recommended that we join with the college and hold a Pastors' School at Campbell College during the coming year. Upon motion duly made and seconded, the Association unanimously voted to jointly sponsor a Pastor's School with Campbell College and to contribute up to $300.00 to defray the expenses of the said school. The Executive Committee was directed to work with the faculty and college trustees in setting up the program.

31. Rev. J. L. Adkins was recognized and gave to the Association a report on the American Bible Society. It was reported that more than fifty-five denominations helped send the gospel around the world as members of the American Bible Society. During the year 1956, more than 800,000 scripture volumns were distributed free among the armed forces of the United States. American Indians received their newest translation—The Navaho New Testament, and many others throughout all areas of the world are indebted to the American Bible Society for their scriptural publications. The Southern Baptists are the second largest contributors to the society

32. Robert Morgan was recognized and he presented the Report on Social Service and Civil Righteousness. Rev. W. P. Biggerstaff having previously spoken to the report, the report was filed.

33. The Moderator presented to the Association Mr. Stanley Lowell, of Washington, D. C., the Assistant Director of Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State. Mr. Lowell delivered an address on the subject of Separation of Church and State in which he pointed out to the session the grave dangers facing the Protestant denomination at this time. He invited the attention of the members to a recent article in the magazine "U. S. News and World Report" in which a Catholic priest made a strong plea for government assistance to the parochial schools—using as argument, the position taken by many southern states to establish private schools as an alternative to integration of the public schools. Mr. Lowell announced that the editors and publishers of U. S. News and World Report had consented and agreed to publish an article prepared by the organization Protestant and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State in rebutal to the article by the Catholic priest.

34. The Moderator read to the Association a very interesting letter written by the Rev. Russell Hilliard, who during the past year was the pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church, but who is now in Spain with his wife as missionaries of the Southern Baptist Convention. Rev. Russell told of the trying circumstances and the difficulties encountered in carrying on the mission effort of the Protestant denomination in Spain. The Spanish government, he said, being of Catholic origin, has placed almost insurmountable obstacles in the path of Christian missions in that country.

35. In the absence of Brother Herman Phelps, the Sunday School Report as set forth in the program was read and adopted. Dr. Herman Ihley, Sunday School Superintendent of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, spoke to the report and stressed the importance of striving to increase the effectiveness of our Sunday Schools. In the Little River Association there are thirty-two churches with thirty-five Sunday Schools.

36. After special music by Mrs. L. C. Pinnix, Rev. M. O. Sears, pastor of Baptist Grove Baptist Church, preached the Annual Doctrinal Sermon. His title for the annual sermon was "Forgiveness of Sin." Following the benediction, the morning session was recessed until 1:30 o'clock.

Afternoon Session

37. The session reconvened at 1:30 with the singing of a hymn, following which Rev. James Howell led the devotion.

38. Following the devotional, a memorial service was held by Mrs. Ernest P. Russell of the Dunn Baptist Church. The names of our deceased dead were read, a complete list of which appear elsewhere in these minutes. Mrs. Russell closed the memorial service by reading the poem by Ella Wheeler Wilcox:

It seemeth such a little way to me,
Across to that strange country, the Beyond;
And yet, not strange, for it has grown to be
The home of those of whom I am so fond;
They make it seem familiar and most dear,
As journeying friends bring distant countries near.

So close it lies that when my sight is clear
I think I almost see the gleaming strand;
I know, I feel, that those who've gone from here
Come near enough sometimes to touch my hand;
I often think, but for our veiled eyes,
We should find heaven right about us lies.

And so for me there is no sting to death
And so the grave has lost its victory;
It is but crossing with abated breath
And white, set face, a little strip of sea,
To find the loved ones waiting on the shore,
More beautiful, more precious than before.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

39. The Woman's Missionary Union Report was adopted as set forth in the program. Mrs. Hubert Byrd of the Friendship Church was recognized, and she reported on the work of the young people in the Association during the past year. A very enlightening and entertaining playlet was presented by the young people from the Lillington Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Pinnix.

40. The Report of the Special Committee appointed by the Chairman of the Executive Committee to serve with the Trustees and to make recommendations to the Association with reference to the construction of a residence for the associational missionary, was reported.

The committee recommended to the Association that it proceed to construct a home for the associational missionary on the lot previously contributed to the Association by Campbell College. Upon motion of Rev. L. C. Pinnix and duly seconded, the Association unanimously voted to accept the recommendations of the special committee, and the Trustees were directed to proceed forthwith with plans to finance and construct a home upon the lot contributed to the Association by Campbell College, and that each church be requested to contribute fifty cents per member during the coming year to be applied to the construction of the home.

41. The Clerk was recognized and he presented the following resolution which upon motion made by Robert Morgan, seconded by Rev. E. Weldon Johnson, was unanimously adopted. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION authorizing the Executive Committee and Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association to mortgage, convey, or otherwise encumber certain property of the Association.

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees of Campbell College have heretofore conveyed to the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association a certain lot or plot of land located in Buies Creek, North Carolina, for the purpose of erecting thereon a home for the Associational Missionary; and

WHEREAS, the Association is now expending certain sums of money for rent for a home that is now being used by the Associational Missionary and that it may be desirable for the Association to construct and erect upon the lot heretofore referred to a home to be used by the said missionary; and

WHEREAS, the Chairman of the Executive Committee has heretofore appointed a committee, composed of the Trustees of the Association, the Moderator of the Association and Brother C. R. Ammons, Brother Lonnie Small and Rev. E. Weldon Johnson, which committee shall investigate the possibility and feasibility of raising sufficient funds, either by gifts or loans, to construct the said home; and

WHEREAS, it may be desirable to begin the construction of said home prior to the next Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association and to that end the Executive Committee and Trustees of said Association shall be authorized to raise such funds as is necessary to construct said residence or home and to that end said Executive Committee and Trustees should be authorized to encumber or mortgage the said lot or parcel of land heretofore referred to as in their opinion such action is wise and feasible;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Little River Baptist Association in its annual session at Friendship Baptist Church in Bunnlevel, North Carolina, on the 30th day of October, 1957, does hereby authorize the Executive Committee and Trustees of the said Association, upon a three-fourths majority vote of the said Trustees and Executive Committee, to mortgage, or encumber, the lot or parcel of land located in Buies Creek, North Carolina, now belonging to the Little River Baptist Association.

FURTHER, the said Trustees and Executive Committee are hereby empowered to negotiate with such loan agency as in their opinion may be necessary and feasible for the purpose of securing sufficient financial assistance to construct said home, and are further authorized to enter into such contracts as is necessary to further the program of constructing said home.

42. Mr. Lonnie Small reported on the Training Union activities for the past year. He reported that all three of the mass meetings held during the past year were vigorously promoted and well attended. The "M" Night Program was outstanding. It was held in the Coats Baptist Church on December 3rd, and the crowd overflowed the Church Auditorium. The Rev. Paul Batson, an excellent minister, brought the Inspirational Sermon. On April 15th, the Tournament Night was held in the Lillington Baptist Church, and it was reported that nearly all of the churches with training unions were represented.

43. The Moderator recognized the following new pastors in the Association: Rev. James Howell, pastor of the Broadway Baptist Church; Rev. Jack Earl Casey, pastor of the Chalybeate Springs Baptist Church, and Rev. Charles Casey, pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church.

44. Upon motion duly made and seconded, the session unanimously voted to dedicate the minutes of this meeting to Mrs. Lee O'Quinn Powell.

45. The Moderator recognized the Committee on Time, Place and Preacher, who made their report and recommendations. The committee recommended that the Annual Meetings be held on Tuesday and Wednesday after the fourth Sunday in October, 1958, with the Tuesday session to meet with the Angier Baptist Church, and the Wednesday session to meet with the Hillmon Grove Baptist Church. The committee recommended that Rev. J. B. Hewitt preach a missionary sermon at the Tuesday session with Rev. Walter F. Gentry as alternate, and that Rev. Billy Fox preach a doctrinal sermon at the Wednesday meeting with the Rev. R. Lewis Beal as alternate. The report of this committee was unanimously adopted.

The Budget Committee reported and recommended the following budget, which was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

Report of Budget Committee For The Year 1957-1958

Missionary:
Salary	$3,200.00
Travel	1,200.00
Housing	800.00
Retirement	120.00
Printing and Supplies	300.00
E. T. W.	175.00
General:
Expenses of Associational Officers	200.00
Printing and Minutes	375.00
Clerk	50.00
Travel and Expense for Pastors' School	300.00

$4,000.00 for missionaries home is in addition to this budget.

46. The Moderator recognized Rev. E. Weldon Johnson, who moved that Article 20 of the Constitution be amended to read as follows: "The Association shall elect three Trustees from the members composing the Association, who shall serve with the Moderator, as the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the propery, both real and personal, owned by the Association. The term of office of the Trustees so elected shall be for six years, and shall be so arranged that the term of the Trustee shall expire at the Annual Session of the Association held every even year, but the Trustees elected shall continue until their successors are elected or until they shall be removed or deceased. The Moderator of the Association shall serve as a Trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified." Upon motion duly made, the amendment was unanimously adopted.

Whereupon, it was moved that Section 11 of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

"The Association shall appoint annually an Executive Promotion Committee of twenty-one members, among whom by virtue of their office are to be the Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Sunday School Superintendent of the Association, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union Superintendent, Superintendent of Evangelism, Associational Brotherhood President, Director of Department of Church Music, the Associational Missionary, Chairman of Christian Literature Committee, Chairman Hospital Committee, Chairman of Social Service and Civil Righteousness Committee, Chairman of Christian Education Association Committee, Chairman of American Bible Society Committee, Chairman of Orphanage Committee, Chairman of Baptist Homes Committee. This committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Association during the interval between the meetings of the body; shall seek to promote the welfare of the churches and their active participation in the causes fostered by the denomination; but shall be answerable to the Association for its acts and make an annual report to the Association of its work. The Executive Promotion Committee shall meet once each quarter and upon other occasions upon the call of the Moderator."

Upon motion duly made and seconded, the amendment was unanimously adopted.

47. The report of the Nominations Committee was made and was unanimously adopted, and the officers are as appear on Pages 6, 7 and 8 of these minutes.

48. Rev. Ernest P. Russell recognized Rev. J. Ben Eller, the Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, who presented the following report:

The Report of the Resolutions Committee

The Eighty-Second Session of the Little River Baptist Association meeting with the Kennebec and Friendship Baptist Churches, on October 29 and 30, 1957, grateful to God for His loving protection, desire at this time to express our thanks to:

1. The host churches for gracious hospitality and ample provisions for our needs.
2. To the Program Committee for an interesting and inspiring program.
3. That we express our sympathy for our Moderator, H. Paul Strickland, in his affliction.
4. That we express our appreciation to our Vice-Moderator, Rev. E. P. Russell, for serving so efficiently in the absence of our Moderator.

Believing that we voice the sentiment of the churches in the Little River Baptist Association we present the following resolutions:

Whereas, There has been much discussion and disturbance among our Baptist churches recently concerning dancing at Wake Forest and Meredith Colleges, be it resolved that:

1. We believe the modern dance with its attendant evils is hurtful to the spiritual growth and Christian dedication of our young people,
2. We believe that our Christian colleges should be different from other colleges, always holding up high ideals,
3. Therefore, we disapprove of dancing on the campuses of our Christian colleges,
4. That we urge the trustees of Wake Forest and Meredith Colleges to change their ruling about dancing before our co-operative Program of Christian Education and Missions be further disrupted or destroyed.

Upon motion duly made and seconded, the report was adopted.

Benediction was pronounced ending the Eighty-Second Session of the Little River Baptist Association.

DEDICATION OF 1958 MINUTES

IN MEMORIAL OF MRS. C. D. BAIN

We lovingly dedicate this volume of the Minutes of the Little River Baptist Association to Mrs. Lydia Yates Bain, Dunn, N. C. She was called to her heavenly home on July 25, 1958.

Mrs. Bain was a native of Johnston County, attended the public schools of Johnston, and graduated from Oxford College at Oxford. She taught school for several years in Cary. She attended the Woman's Missionary Union Training School, Louisville, Ky.

She was married to the Rev. Cecil Hillard of Greensboro. Dr. Hillard died in 1918. After his death she became an educational worker and finance secretary of the First Baptist Church, Greensboro, N. C. She was married to Dr. Clarence D. Bain in 1924.

For more than thirty-five years she was an accredited Sunday School Worker for the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. In her own Church she was a Sunday School Teacher, a Deaconess, and had held various offices in the Woman's Missionary Union and other church organizations. She was active in the Dunn Woman's Club and a member of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club.

Mrs. Bain performed well the tasks assigned her. She was ever loyal to her church and its total program.

CONSTITUTION

1. This association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as an advisory council.

4. The association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the association shall be a moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the messengers composing the association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of the office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual session.

8. It shall be the duty of the moderator to preside during the deliberations of the body, to enforce the observance of the constitution, preserve the decorum, appoint a Nominating Committee, appoint committees except when other provisions are made for their appointment, decide all questions of order, giving his opinion on any question under discussion, and cast the deciding vote in case of a tie.

9. It shall be the duty of the clerk to record the proceedings of each annual meeting of the association, superintend the printing of the minutes and their distribution among the churches.

10. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the sessions of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds administered by him at each annual meeting.

11. The association shall appoint annually an Executive Promotion Committee of 14 members, among whom by virtue of their office are to be the moderator, vice-moderator as chairman, clerk, treasurer, Associational Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union Superintendent, Superintendent of Evangelism, Brotherhood President, Associational Missionary, Director of Department of Church Music. This committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the association during the interval between the meetings of the body; shall seek to promote the welfare of the churches, and their active participation in the causes fostered by the denomination, but shall be answerable to the association for its acts, and make an annual report to the association of its work. The executive committee shall meet once each quarter and upon other occasions on the call of the moderator.

12. The association in annual meeting shall appoint a presbytery of four members to sit with the pastor of any persons whose ordination is sought, and the moderator of the association, to examine the qualifications and opportunities for work of the candidate.

13. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in October.

14. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the executive committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

15. This association shall have the right to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament Principles.

16. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may present a petition at the annual meeting of the body through messengers appointed for this purpose. Prior to the annual meeting the petition is to be studied by a standing committee of four members on Admission of New Churches. The Committee is to be elected by the association and the moderator is to be chairman. If the association shall consent to receive such church the moderator shall extend the hand of fellowship to the messengers.

17. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

18. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon, and a sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

19. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning of the day on which such motion will be presented.

20. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the association, who shall serve with the moderator, as the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The term of office of the trustees so elected shall be for six years, and shall be so arranged that the term of one trustee shall expire at the annual session of the association held every even year, but the trustees elected shall continue until their successors are elected or until they shall be removed or deceased. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

Morning Session

October 28, 1958

1. Rev. Ernest P. Russell, moderator, called the Little River Baptist Association to order at the Angier Baptist Church at 9:30 o'clock A. M. on Tuesday, October 28, 1958. The meeting opened with Rev. L. C. Pinnix leading the congregation in singing the hymns, "Jesus Calls Us" and "Footsteps of Jesus."

2. Rev. Jack Holt, pastor of Neill's Creek Church, led the opening devotion using Eph. 2: 4-7, "What Christ Has Done For Us."

3. At the direction of the moderator, the clerk called the roll of the churches of the association and all member churches were represented with the exception of the following: Cumberland Union, Macedonia, Gourd Springs and Holly Springs, Swanns Station. Thereupon the moderator announced that a quorum was present, and upon motion duly made and seconded, the session voted unanimously that the official messengers present should constitute the Eighty-Third Session of the Little River Baptist Association.

4. Rev. Walter F. Gentry, Chairman of Committee on Admission of New Churches, was recognized and presented the Application of the North Clinton Avenue Baptist Church for admission to Little River Baptist Association. Attached to the application was a list of the members of the church and the Articles of Faith. After reporting for the admissions committee, Bro. Gentry made a motion that the North Clinton Avenue Baptist Church be accepted in the Association and such motion, being duly seconded, was unanimously passed. Thereupon the moderator extended the hand of fellowship and a welcome to the pastor and the following members who were present: Rev. Joseph Creech, pastor; Mr. M. F. Hodges, Mrs. M. F. Hodges, Mrs. V. L. Stephens, Mrs. K. M. Wood, Mrs. Joe Norris, Mrs. Flonnie Tew, and Mrs. Irene Godwin.

8. The moderator recognized E. Weldon Johnson for the report of the Executive Committee which report was adopted as follows:

Report of the Executive Committee

I. Resume of Activities:

Your Executive Committee has held four meetings during the year. The Executive Committee was divided into three sub-committees, namely: Mission, Finance, and Education, for the purpose of promoting the work.

Under the guidance of your Executive Committee the work of the Association was promoted by your missionary.

II. Recommendations:

A. General:

1. That we commend the fine work done by the Associational Officers in Sunday School, Training Union, W. M. U., Brotherhood and Music Ministry.

2. That we urge all churches to cooperate fully with the activities of our Associational Officers.

3. That each church adopt a sound financial plan, budget and enlistment, and that the membership be kept informed by regular reports.

4. That we adopt the calendar recommended by our missionary.

5. That we commend our missionary for the fine work and pledge him our support.

6. That the churches continue to support our Associational Mission Program with an amount equal to 3% of their budget exclusive of their building program.

7. That our churches support the Cooperative Program as the first way of giving since it is the channel through which our churches may support all of our work, and also the special day emphasis for all of our mission efforts and agencies.

8. That the churches keep the fires of Evangelism alive. To this end we urge every church to participate in the Simultaneous Revival effort in March, 1959. May the Lord, through our efforts, add to the churches and His Kingdom many souls.

9. That the reports to our Association in its annual and special sessions be included in the printed book of minutes.

10. That the Committee on a house for the Missionary move as rapidly as possible and wise toward making the house a reality.

11. That special prayer for our Associational work be had at some time during that year in every church.

12. That we commend the people of North Clinton Avenue Baptist Church, organized during the past year, and wish for them blessings and success in the work of our Lord.

13. That we rejoice in the ordination of Brothers Junnie Jones and Clarence Corbett.

14. That we recommend that the Executive Committee revert to the original membership, that is as it was constituted before 1957-1958.

B. Constitutional change.

That Article 11 be amended so that it shall read as it did before the Associational Meeting on October 29 and 30, 1957, with regard to those who constitute the Executive Committee. Also that the first sentence read as follows: "The Association shall appoint annually an Executive Promotion Committee of fourteen members among whom by virtue of their office are to be the Moderator, Vice-Moderator, as Chairman, Clerk, treasurer, etc."

Respectfully submitted,
E. Weldon Johnson

9. The moderator recognized Julius Holloway for the report of the Associational Missionary which report was adopted as follows:

Report of Associational Missionary

Some of the things you have done through your missionary this year:

1. Shown 40 films, filmstrips and slides.
2. Preached 75 sermons.
3. Heard 15 professions of faith.
4. Taught 12 Study Courses. Attended 8 state and region meetings.
5. Spoke 20 times on missions and cooperative program.
6. Spoke 5 times on church budgets.
7. Visited 20 churches not for special services.
8. Worked in 6 Vacation Bible Schools.
9. Conducted 5 funerals.
10. Spoke 12 services to ordain deacons and ministers.
11. Held 5 devotions over WCKB, Dunn.
12. Spoke 15 times on State Missions and Stewardship.

13. Held 2,115 individual conferences and 25 group and committee conferences.
14. Prepared and mailed 4,500 bulletins and 3,521 cards and letters.

Made and received 893 telephone calls. Spoke in 20 prayer-meetings. Preached or furnished supply 26 times for Lillington Mission, and traveled 22,964 miles.

It is difficult to show the results of these contacts with our churches.

One of the things that worries me is that during the 83 year history of Little River Association we have had only 4 missionaries, Natives of the Association, for appointment to the mission fields. Do we have the right to be called Missionary Baptist? Have we prayed for God's call to be heard by our sons and daughters? Have we taught them the need or challenged them to go?

Last year we reported 10,467 members and only 308 baptisms, which is to say here in Little River it took over 30 of us, in 32 churches and 3 missions, a whole year to win one person to Christ. Therefore I am suggesting that January 4, 1959 be designated as soul-winning commitment day in our churches. May I also urge strongly that each church and each member participate in our 1959 Evangelistic Crusade, March 15-29, 1959. Let us plan, Special Prayer, Soul-winning classes, and church community surveys to determine our possibilities for God.

More missions need to be started now in our Association and sponsored and guided by some church. It will be impossible for your missionary or the missions committee to establish and maintain our share of the 30,000 new missions and churches. Nor would it be proper. We would be robbing your church and members of something they should be doing.

It seems to me that one of our great needs is more people informed about our total Baptist Program. Baptists are attempting a big Program and we cannot afford to just ride the band-wagon, we must pull or push our share of the load. What we are not up on, we are either down on or indifferent about. The special weeks of prayer on the four phases of World Missions, State Missions, Association Missions, Foreign Missions, and Home Missions is a wonderful opportunity to learn what is being done, and what the needs are. We cannot learn and pray as we should in one hour or one day, these are SPECIAL WEEKS. Men we must not leave this learning and praying to the women.

Every church should have an Evangelistic Crusade Committee studying the suggested plans and details, and praying for, this great movement in 1959.

Every church also should have a Missions Committee, carefully studying the 30,000 Movement and the Jubilee Celebration, looking for the wonderful possibilities, potentials, opportunities, and challenge of their church community. No Convention, Association or church, or individual will do much unless there is prayer, dedication, and careful planning.

It has always been my desire to be a friend to the pastor and the church, and to promote a glowing enthusiastic program. In a few cases it has been difficult and I may have offended where no offense whatsoever was intended because of lack of vision on the part of pastor or church or both.

Our churches will be blessed, and will bless the world, in proportion to their contributions and participations in all activities of world missions. Usually the church that gives little or participates little in Associational Missions will do little or nothing for other mission causes. Associational Missions fosters and promotes missions around the world.

Last year 12 churches reported no Budget. We gave for all purposes $388,013.00, only $67,000 of this was for missions, which is to say that we spent over five times as much on ourselves as we gave to missions. We reported 933 tithers, 508 of these in W. M. U., and about all many of them had to tithe was the surplus egg money. Only one third of the worlds population claims Christianity as their faith. Last year 8 churches gave nothing to Associational Missions, and 10 churches gave less than $50. Only 5 churches reported training schools, only 12 reported January Bible Study, 23 reported Training Unions, 24 W. M. U's., 11 reported Brotherhoods, and 9 gave nothing to the Cooperative Program.

Let us observe Christian Stewardship Week, October 26-November 1, or some week you choose.

Let us do our best to pray for and encourage dedications and commitments for Missionary Volunteers and plan a financial program to support world missions.

Missionary Volunteers plus adequate support equals missionary advance.

Respectfully submitted,
Julius Holloway

10. The moderator recognized W. A. Johnson, the Associational Treasurer, who gave an inspiring challenge for more full support financially from each of the churches and presented his report which was adopted as follows:

THE REPORT OF ASSOCIATIONAL TREASURER

11. Brother L. C. Pinnix led the congregation in singing the hymn, "More Love to Thee."

12. The moderator recognized J. Ben Eller, who in the absence of Forrest Maxwell who had moved from the Association, gave the report on Minister's Retirement Plan, adopted as follows:

Report on Minister's Retirement Plan

For years many of our Baptist preachers have suffered severely and silently with small salaries or no salaries, they have been unable to prepare for old age. Likewise many of their widows have suffered. The small amount that our Relief and Annuity Board can give has helped, but it has been far from sufficient.

Now plans exist to enable Baptist Ministers and their wives of our day to avoid much of such experiences. The Ministers Retirement Plan, now closed, and the Protective Plan of the Southern Baptist Convention, now open, offer such service. Every Baptist pastor and every Baptist Church should be a member of one of these plans. Here is found income when age forces retirement; here is disability insurance; here is help for widows and orphans.

At the close of 1957 there were approximately 17,500 members in the various plans of the Southern Baptist Convention. Yet only 34% of our ministers are enrolled, leaving 66% uncovered.

In North Carolina, as of July 1, 1958, we had 553 members of the Ministers Retirement Plan, now closed. At that time we had 473 members of the Protective Plan, a total of 1,026 in both plans. This is only 35% of our possibility, leaving 65% of our ministers unprotected.

Why have our ministers not taken advantage of this protection? Among others, two reasons are suggested. First, inability to pay their part of the due. Salaries are small and much of the income goes into the church program. Second, as the church must participate, many pastors hesitate to ask the church to do so. Laymen should get behind this movement. We insure the church building, why not the pastor?

How are we as messengers to this Association to render help? Three things we suggest:

1. Go back home and ascertain if your church and your pastor are in either plan.
2. If not urge the leaders of your church to place the plan in your program and your budget.
3. Persuade your church to pay both the church's and the pastor's dues. Already 36% of the churches now in the plan are doing this.

For further information write Rev. Ottis J. Hagler, Secretary of Retirement Plans for North Carolina. His address is Baptist Building, 301 Hillsboro St., Raleigh, N. C.

Respectfully submitted,
J. B. Eller, Coats, N. C.

13. The moderator recognized Irvin Stephens for the report on Christian Literature, discussed by E. Weldon Johnson in the absence of L. L. Carpenter, and adopted as follows:

Report on Christian Literature

People are largely influenced by what they read. Never has there been a time when boys and girls of our land had more unwholesome literature thrown about them than today. They read cheap novels and trashy magazines that are detrimental to the Christian life.

Someone has said, "The way to keep a boy from eating green apples is to give him plenty of ripe ones." Can we not apply the same principle to reading? If our churches and homes do not provide wholesome literature which will instill high ideals, create a desire for pure living, and stimulate our members to render unselfish service, who will?

Baptists have compelling reasons for giving major attention to religious literature. We believe in personal responsibility and voluntary action. We are inevitably involved in a raging war, the war of ideas. There is a ceaseless struggle between the ideas of secularism and spiritual values, formalism and faith, works and Grace, the kingdom of Satan and the kingdom of Christ. The printed page is the chief medium for this warfare of ideas.

First, we urge more reading of the Bible, God's Holy Word, our guide book. There we find history, poetry, romance, good news and inspiration we can never find in any other reading.

Second, we have two Baptist papers, "Charity and Children," and "Biblical Recorder," which informs us and encourages us concerning Baptist work in our State.

Then in the area of missions at home and abroad we have "Home Missions", and "The Commissions." Every home should have these.

Through the Women's Missionary Union we can have the "Royal Service", "Tell", "The Window of Y. W. A.," and "Ambassador Life". These are designed to enrich the lives of every age group.

The Sunday School Board also provides us with literature for teaching and training of every age group in our church. "Home Life," is one of the best. It is ideal to use in our homes for daily devotion.

The blind people of our Convention are enabled to participate in all church organizations through the medium of the "Braille Baptist". The Spanish speaking people in the Southwest are served by the El Paso Publishing House.

Let us take advantage of these great opportunities for proper study, meditation, prayer, and to carry this literature wherever it is needed.

Respectfully submitted,
Irvin Stephens

14. Brother Wendell G. Davis, pastor of the Western Avenue Baptist Church, Statesville, N. C., brought an informing, inspiring, and challenging message on "Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State."

15. At the direction of the moderator the clerk called the roll of the absent churches at the beginning of the session, at this time all member churches of the Association were represented except Gourd Springs.

16. Brother L. C. Pinnix was called upon to introduce the Campbell College Choir, directed by Charles Horton, for special music. The choir sang: "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands," "Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley," "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

17. The moderator introduced Rev. R. Lewis Beal, pastor of the Angier Baptist Church, who in the absence of Billy Fox who had moved from the Association, preached the Doctrinal Sermon using as his text Ephesians 4: 1-2, "Keep the Unity of the Spirit in the Bond of Peace."

18. At the conclusion of the sermon, benediction was pronounced and the session adjourned for lunch.

19. The session reconvened in the afternoon at 1:30 with the singing of the hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers," led by L. C. Pinnix.

20. Brother Warren May, pastor of the South Erwin Baptist Church, had charge of the devotion, reading Ephesians 2 and leading in prayer.

21. Brother Russell recognized our former Moderator, Mr. H. Paul Strickland, who expressed to the Association his appreciation for the cooperation he had received during his term as moderator and thanked Brother Russell then vice-moderator, for carrying on while he was incapacitated with a broken leg.

22. The moderator recognized Dr. A. W. Peede for the report on Baptist Hospital. He gave the report and introduced Dr. W. K. McGee of the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, who spoke on Hospital. The report was adopted as follows:

The Mother's Day Offering for the Baptist Hospital from the Little River Association was $2,122.27. This is good but a little less than 1957. Reports from the Hospital indicate that more could be used.

I think we would be interested in knowing what is done with this money.

First the Baptist Hospital has a record of never turning away from its doors any patient who needs medical care, and the records further show that 40% of the patients are unable to pay for a part or all of their treatment. Our money is used wisely and efficiently to defray a part of the expenses of their care.

The Hospital offers a number of services which we should know about—

In 1957—1856 births
Has one of the six nurseries for premature babies in N. C.
Last year treated 179 pediatric dept.
Last year treated 1501 children.

In all there are 30 Specialized Clinics. Among the special services are: School for training nurses, for training practical nurses, school of medical records, school of Anesthesia, laboratory technicians. Also school for training ministers for pastoral work in the hospital.

Truly our Baptist Hospital in an institution of which all Baptists should be proud.

Dr. A. W. Peede

23. Brother Joe Currin was recognized for the report on Baptist Children's Homes. He gave the report and introduced Marse Grant from the home in Thomasville who by means of pictures took us on a visit to the Homes. The report adopted is as follows:

Report on Baptist Children's Homes

June 30, 1958 marked the culmination of 15 years of progressive leadership by W. C. Reed with the Children's Homes of North Carolina. After serving as Superintendent of the Kennedy for seven years, Mr. Reed moved to Thomasville where he served as general Superintendent for eight years. Under his supervision the Children's Homes experienced one of their greatest periods of building, growth, and expansion of services. At present North Carolina Baptists probably provide more services for dependent children than any other similar group in America. Those associated with our child care program have, in the 73 years of its history, developed a program which is recognized as one of the best in the nation.

Dr. W. R. Wagoner, of North Wilksboro, was elected by the Trustees to succeed Mr. Reed. Dr. Wagoner assumed his duties July 1.

The year 1957-58 has been a fruitful one in expanding services. Since October 1, 1957, North Carolina Baptists have directly served a grand total of 753 children. In addition to these, our social workers have been able to place with relatives or other agencies more than 200 children where their need is being met. Each application has been investigated by our case workers. During the past year we were able to admit about one-fourth of the applicants as compared with one-fifth admitted in 1956. Through the dedicated resourcefulness of our social workers, many homes were re-established while others were saved from breaking.

Last year's report pointed up the need for expanding our Foster Homes and for the care of the Indian Children at Pembroke. The Baptist State Convention at its annual meeting last November voted unanimously to accept the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of Baptist Children's Homes and to make the Odum Home at Pembroke a part of the North Carolina Baptist Child Care Program. This work, with 16 children, has been under the care and support of your Homes, since January, 1958. Money has been set aside to build a new cottage at Pembroke for the Indian children. We are now working to get a clear title to the land. When that is done, we will move rapidly to erect the building.

North Carolina Baptists have two sources for supporting the Children's Homes; One is a combination of the Once-a-Month Offering and the Cooperative Program. Through this plan the Homes receive a fixed amount. This cannot be increased or decreased except by vote of the Convention.

Two is the Thanksgiving Offering, every dollar marked "Thanksgiving Offering" comes to the Children's Homes. Last year we asked for an increase of 10% in the Thanksgiving Offering. The churches responded with a 15% increase. This increase of $31,000 enabled us to support the Indian work at Pembroke and at the same time to considerably expand the Foster Home Program. We have confidence that North Carolina Baptists will continue to remember deserving children at Thanksgiving with a generous offering.

During the coming year a cottage will be erected at Mills Home for boys and a cottage at Kennedy Home for girls. These new buildings are being made possible by special gifts and bequests.

Serious consideration must be given in the near future to more adequate care for the children whose emotional stability has been seriously damaged. North Carolina Baptists have the potential resources with which to meet this growing need.

A bundle of CHARITY AND CHILDREN should go into every Baptist Church in the state. If your church is not receiving this attractive and informative paper each week, please write Editor Marse Grant at Thomasville immediately and begin a club in your church. All Pastors and Sunday School Superintendents will receive complimentary copies if they will send their names to the editor.

Most important of all, remember to pray for the children being served by your Children's Homes. Some carry heavy burdens which can be lightened with your prayers and material support. The administration and staff members also appreciate every expression of your love and concern for this Christ-ordained ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
Joe Currin

24. Brother Roger Johnson was recognized for the report on the Baptist Homes for the aging. He gave his report and introduced Charles Burchette from the home in Albemarle who spoke on the homes. The report was adopted as follows:

Report on Baptist Homes for the Aging

The Homes for the Aging are now in their eighth year of operation—Resthaven opened on March 16, 1951, the Albemarle Home December 7, 1953, and the Administrative Building, Winston-Salem, June 13, 1957. The three homes have facilities for 119, counting helpers and residents. The average number of residents will exceed 100.

Efforts were launched in June to raise $100,000 to match a gift of Mr. Don G. Matthews, Sr. of $50,000 and land upon which to build a fourth home to be located at Hamilton in Martin County. It is expected that this effort will be successful and the home will then be built. This home will provide for approximately 40 residents, giving a total capacity for all three Homes of 150 residents.

The Homes have had a good year financially. Income for the year ending on September 39, 1957 was $268,924.58. All money borrowed for construction has been repaid except $20,000. Funds received from the Special Day Offerings, and the Cooperative Program have helped to meet the current cost of operation. They have also received gifts from individuals and corporations. The largest gift for the year was $40,000.

A large number of residents have been aided financially. Less than ten per cent of the residents have given to the Homes assets sufficient to pay their keep for life. Most of the residents are paying one-third to one-half of their keep. This means, therefore, that the difference in costs is taken from funds received from denominational channels and special gifts from individuals and corporations.

The 850,000 Baptists of North Carolina are presented with a greater challenge to minister to the aging group which is ever increasing in number. Larger dormitory facilities will be needed. The capacity of the infirmary in the Administration Building needs to be doubled. It now accomodates only 15 patients and space is needed for at least thirty. We feel that Baptists of our state will meet this challenge. Gratitude is expressed to all who have had a part. We have confidence that this great work will continue and grow as time passes. We look to the future with great hope.

Respectfully submitted,
Roger C. Johnson

25. Brother L. C. Pinnix was called upon to introduce the Lillington Baptist Trio for special music. They sang, "O Lord Most Holy."

26. Brother Perry Langston was recognized for the report on Christian Education. He moved the adoption of the report as printed in book of reports and introduced

Claude Gaddy, Secretary of the Council on Christian Education, who introduced L. H. Hollingsworth, President of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention, who spoke on Christian Education. The report adopted is as follows:

Report on Christian Education

These negative statements are submitted to emphasize the positive contributions which Baptists make to education and which Christian Education makes to Baptist life.

1. Our colleges cannot do without your financial help. Last year the Baptist State Convention contributed $480,000 to the operational expenses of the seven Baptist Colleges. Of this Campbell received $57,600, which is 8% of Campbell's total budget. Without Convention help these schools could not do the quality work which they are performing.

Last year the seven colleges received $738,000 for capital needs, of which Campbell got $88,560. These funds have helped the schools to expand to meet the needs of the flood of students who desire a college education. The $266,000 which the Convention has invested in construction at Campbell has resulted in over $1,000,000 worth of buildings. These buildings belong to the Baptists of North Carolina, even though the Convention has paid about one-fourth of their cost.

2. Our colleges cannot do without your sons and daughters.

This might be restated to say that our schools have nothing to do without their students. The schools exist for the students. 148 of the 901 students at Campbell this year have come from the territory of the Little River Association. Our other colleges and seminaries also have students from our Association. What the schools can do depends on what they have to do with. Our schools operate to help parents to see that their children get a Christian education.

3. Our colleges cannot do without your intelligent prayers and active interest.

Baptists make their colleges what they are and what they ought to be. The trustees are the keys to the policies and people which operate our schools. And the trustees are Convention elected. The proper selection of trustees who will be God guided in their decisions will determine the future course our schools will follow.

Baptists can take justifiable pride in the institutions which they own. Campbell is easy to visit for most of our folk. See for yourself the nearly $500,000 of construction which is now going on. Our other schools are also building. Become a public relations ambassador for your schools.

May we now reverse our approach and see what Christian Education is doing to advance the work of the Kingdom of God.

1. Missions cannot exist without our Baptist Schools.

Our schools are recruiting and training grounds for missions. In our 70 Southern Baptist Educational Institutions there are 9,967 ministerial students, 2,281 educational directors-to-be, 978 church music candidates, and 2,350 volunteers for Home and Foreign Missions. In all there are 15,510 students preparing for specific church related vocations.

Foreign missionaries are all, with rare exceptions, both college and seminary trained. To borrow a military phrase, our "pipe line" is producing about 125 foreign missionaries each year. Our colleges are the "pipe lines" which get the workers from the churches to their fields of service.

2. Baptist pastors cannot be developed without Baptist schools.

There are 415 ministerial students in our seven North Carolina Baptist Colleges. They are in the best environment for the development of the sort of preachers we need in our churches. Along with their intellectual stimulation there comes a social contact of others of like mind and purpose. The campus atmosphere and course content is not, and can not, be duplicated in any other than a Baptist controlled school.

3. Higher education can not do without Christian Education.

Until very recent years most of higher education was in church related schools. As the state has taken over the responsibility for providing for an increasing number of students the schools which the state supports have had to meet the high moral and intellectual standards which have been set by Christian Colleges. Our state schools will not go materialistic so long as they continue to have the competition of strong, vigorous, vital Christian Education. We can leaven the lump with Christian education.

Christian Education is necessary in order to provide the leaders and laymen who will meet the challenge of today and tomorrow's world with the Gospel of Jesus.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Perry Langston

27. Brother G. Scott Turner was recognized for the report on Evangelism. He gave the report and introduced Rev. Julian Hopkins, State Secretary of Evangelism, who spoke on Evangelism. The report was adopted as follows:

Report on Evangelism

Baptists are embarking upon what is probably the greatest undertaking in their history—The 1959 SIMULTANEOUS EVANGELISTIC CRUSADE. The scope and possibilities of this crusade thrill the heart. We urge every church in the Association to take part, wholeheartedly, in this great evangelistic effort.

With the approval of the ministerial conference of this Association, your committee recommends:

1. That two full weeks of evangelistic services be held in each church, March 15-29, 1959.

2. That the following brethren be appointed as a Steering Committee to lead us in this effort:

Chairman of Evangelism .....G. Scott Turner, Buies Creek, N. C.
Chairman of Enlistment .....Jack E. Casey, Chalybeate Springs, N. C.

Chairman of Finance .....R. Lewis Beal, Angier, N. C.
Chairman of Publicity .....Lynn Barry, Buies Creek, N. C.
Chairman Radio and Television .....Ernest P. Russell, Dunn, N. C.
Chairman of Census .....E. Weldon Johnson, Buies Creek, N. C.
Jack A. Holt, Rt. 2, Angier, N. C.
Chairman of Special Rallies .....Julius Holloway, Buies Creek, N. C.
Chairman of Prayer .....Walter F. Gentry, Mamers, N. C.
Chairman of Music .....L. C. Pinnix, Lillington, N. C.
Chairman of Attendance .....Charles W. Stafford, Bunnlevel, N. C.

3. That all the churches join in taking a complete census of our Association. The Sunday Schools will be in charge of the census taking but all the church organizations are asked to assist. The afternoon of Sunday, February 1st, is the date set for taking the census.

4. That we have a great Associational Rally, Monday, March 9, 1959, in preparation for the Crusade. This will be at night in a centrally located church.

5. That the churches follow the leadership of the chairman of the Steering Committee in the various united efforts in prayer services, high attendance days, etc. Information about these efforts will be supplied.

6. That the Steering Committee draw up a budget of the necessary expenses in connection with this Crusade and the churches be asked to contribute funds for this purpose according to their ability.

Respectfully submitted,
G. Scott Turner.

28. Brother E. Weldon Johnson, who in the absence of W. A. Johnson, was recognized and gave a report of the Trustees and Building Committee for the home for the Missionary. The report was adopted as follows:

Report of Trustees and Building Committee

The Trustees and Building Committee met on October 26, 1958. Brother Ernest Russell reported on the previous meeting.

A motion was made by Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn that the committee be authorized to proceed on the basis of the plans submitted at an approximate cost of $18,000.00. About 60% of the amount is to be borrowed and about 40% to be raised in the churches. The committee would be authorized to make necessary changes. The motion was seconded by Mrs. Catherine King and was unanimously adopted.

We, the committee, suggest that the churches send $1.00 per member immediately, or at least by January 15, to the Associational Treasurer, this being the amount recommended last year.

If the plan recommended is adopted, the churches must provide an initial amount of $6,000.

Respectfully submitted,

29. The moderator recognized Brother C. W. Flowers who has been attending the annual sessions of the Association for 62 years and has missed only 3 meetings.

30. The moderator recognized Brother Lewis Beal, Royal Ambassador Leader, who announced the R. A. Conclave at Neill's Creek Church, November 7th.

31. After Benediction the session recessed for the day to be resumed Wednesday morning at 9:30 at the Hillmon Grove Baptist Church. 350 were present today.

32. The Association reconvened for the day at 9:30 at the Hillmon Grove Baptist Church and opened with the singing of the hymns, "Glory to His Name," "There's A Land That is Fairer than Day" led by L. C. Pinnix, followed by a devotional led by Jack Casey, pastor of the Chalybeate Springs Church, using Revelation 3:8; Stressing the open door of prayer and urged the use of it that we may find other doors that are opened.

33. In the period of miscellaneous business the missionary was recognized, who spoke briefly of the cooperation of the churches of the association and the members of the Hillmon Grove Church in its organization and building. The roll of the churches was called and all member churches were represented except: Baptist Chapel, Baptist Grove, Bethel, Cumberland Union, East Erwin, Gourd Springs, Macedonia, and Pleasant Memory. Announcement was made for the meeting of the time, place, and preacher, and for the finance committees upon adjournment for lunch.

34. Brother H. H. Hamilton was recognized for the report of the American Bible Society, he gave the report and spoke to it briefly. The report was adopted as follows:

Report on American Bible Society

Southern Baptist plans are nearing completion for launching the Baptist Jubilee Advance 1959-1964. This recalls to our minds that in every missionary advance the Bible is the fore-runner.

The Bible is a must in missions and evangelism. If the people of the world are to know Christ they must have the Bible. It is basic in the knowledge of Him. It is the one tool every missionary must have; he uses it in all his work. The Bible is a missionary. It goes where a human missionary cannot go. It stays on after he must leave, and continues to speak to the hearts of the people.

Every man must have the Bible in his own language, but in many countries the people cannot afford the cost of printing it.

The American Bible Society helps to translate the Bible, publishes it without comment, distributes it without profit for worldwide mission work. It supplies Scriptures for the blind in raised-letter systems and on talking Book Records. In fact, the American Bible Society is an active partner of Southern Baptists in all mission work at home and abroad.

Last year the American Bible Society distributed throughout the world fifteen million volumes of Scriptures, donated more than one million Scripture volumes to the chaplains in our armed services to be distributed to the men in the service, and assumed a joint responsibility with the British and Foreign Bible Society for the Work in India, France, and the Congo Basin of Africa.

Southern Baptists support the American Bible Society because it supports mission work and because Southern Baptist missionaries everywhere depend on it for Scriptures they need to distribute to their people.

So many requests and needs were unmet in 1957 because of a lack of funds. We are missionary Baptists. Won't you see that some funds are sent each year from your church to the Baptist state office marked: "For the American Bible Society."

Respectfully submitted,
H. H. Hamilton

35. Brother B. F. McLeod was recognized for the report of Social Service and Civic Righteousness. He gave the report and spoke to it. The report was adopted as follows:

Report on Social Service and Civic Righteousness

Social Service might be placed in the same category with Civic Righteousness, but again it might not. The word, Socialism, is derived from the word social, and Webster says social means "pertaining to, or between allies or confederates, and is characteristic of the pleasure seeking of the world; and that socialism is a political and economic theory of social organizations based on collective or governmental ownership.

Righteousness is described as Moral uprightness, Godliness. Thus we can readily see that social service to promote these ends has no relation to civic righteousness. So, is not civic righteousness indispensible to the kind of social service we are urging and trying to stimulate in our churches and Christian endeavors to overcome the enchanting Non-christian displays of pleasure-seeking and immoral gestures thrown upon television screens today and displayed in many widely circulated magazines and some daily papers that come into our homes.

Thus social service might charter a course in the opposite direction of spiritual endeavors unless Civic Righteousness goes hand in hand with it. I want to commend our Associational Missionary for combining these two subjects into one.

In discussing the two subjects we may fittingly enter the field of temperance which is one of the most challenging assignments and jobs the Christians of today face. Intemperance of various kinds has in the last few years gained such momentum it is running rampant and rough-shod over all efforts to slow it up, especially the great forces and financial powers in our country to send alcoholic beverages into the ramparts of every American home.

It is said that the Civil War was the most bloody of any conflict the world has ever known. Yet, statistics tell us that alcoholic beverages have directly or indirectly killed more people since the Eighteenth Amendmnt to the Constitution of the United States was repealed than lost their lives in he Civil War. If this is not true then charge this misstatement to some statistician, not me. The United States Constitution may be amended by one of two ways as provided therein:

By convention of delegates from each state recommending by majority vote that an amendment be submitted to the states to be voted upon, and if three-fourths of the states vote favorable it becomes a part of the Constitution; the other provision for amending is that the Congress vote for an amendment to be submitted to the states in the same manner. This repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment stemmed from the Congress, and today there are at least two bills, somewhat similar, that have been prepared by Congressmen but not yet introduced to appropriate two hundred million dollars to promote scientific study pursuant to discovering some remedy for the alleviation of suffering by the habitual alcoholics. Now, this does not make sense. I feel like saying, "Consistancy, where art thou?" If Congress would work on the cause and not spend millions trying to discover remedies for the results, they, in my opinion, could accomplish something and eventually reduce the evils of alcohol to a minimum.

In discussing this subject I would be derelict to the cause for which I hope we all stand, if I did not refer to the conditions we have right here in our own state. To get a conception of the evils of alcohol right around us we need only to open our eyes, read the weekly and daily papers: Blood on the highways, broken homes, courts crowded with divorce cases, neglected, innocent children, public welfare checks streaming from welfare offices all over our state to feed and clothe them, crowded emergency rooms in hospitals as result of the use of knives, fire arms and other weapons. These are only some of the disastrous effects of its use.

Now, what are we going to do about it? What are we doing about it? Or can we do anything about it?

The moral upright and Christian people of our State and Nation have been and are still striving to overcome this monstrous evil by promoting social service in conjunction with civic righteousness, and I hold no brief against this, marvelous results are being accomplished.

But we must do more; we must assert ourselves as citizens; we must let our government officials know that the State and National governments do not belong to them but us, and prove it to them at the ballot box. All of us know the results of efforts made in our state to get a referendum on alcohol, especially whiskey. And so long as we leave it to politicians we will not get a vote on it. Some few running for election to the legislature will promise, if you press them enough, to introduce a bill calling for a referendum, but they well know at the time it will be pigeonholed by a committee appointed for that purpose.

The only hope for us, as I see, is to go into the primary elections with sleeves rolled up and nominate legislators who will go to Raleigh and be fair to and respect the wishes of the citizens of the State. When that day comes we will be on our way toward reducing the use of alcoholic beverages to a great extent and saving from its disastrous effects countless numbers of men, women and children.

Respectfully submitted,
B. F. McLeod

36. Mrs. J. Ben Eller was recognized and gave the report on World Mission and introduced Claude Gaddy, Secretary of the Council on Christian Education, who spoke most informing and challenging about our Total Baptist Program. The report adopted is as follows.

Report on World Missions

In contemplating a report on World Missions, the poem, "World Need," by Dr. E. P. Allredge, comes to memory. The last stanza reads:

"World need! World Need! World Need!
We thank thee, dear Lord, for the chance of it
For the reach and the risk and the romance of it,
The high hope of it, the strong cope of it,
For the way and the sway and the stay that comes now for the task today."

Who among us will deny that the need for the Gospel and its consequent blessings is the ground upon which world missions stands?

Dedicated, praying, missionary members make more missionary churches. And in a reciprocal action, missionary churches produce more missionary members.

If every member of the Little River Association felt "the urge, the dire press, vast sweep, and deep need," of and for World Missions, as did our great Apostle of Advance, Dr. Theron M. Rankin, we could be assured of more mission victories, day by day.

Roger M. Smith in September Commission tells us a Missionary church is, "one that studies, practices, prays for, and supports missions with men and money."

There are 31,279 churches in S. B. C., with a total membership of 8,965,255, with 1,251 foreign missionaries on July 19, 1958. One wonders how missionary we are when it takes 7,300 to send one missionary.

Baptists of Norway support one missionary to every 300 members, and in New Zealand, one for every 500.

Our ideas about missions are improving. The Survey Committee of S. B. C. at Houston incorporated these words in its report: "The Home Mission Board and the State Conventions are to seek to develop a uniform S. B. C. wide pattern of mission work."

In the current Home Mission Program by Dr. Courts Redford, he said: "It is encouraging that associations, State conventions, other convention agencies, and other Baptists conventions are among those cooperating.

Dr. Redford also says: "In such cooperation we shall constantly bear in mind that the local church is, in fact, the responsible agent."

Our convention-wide programs which challenge our churches at present are The Evangelistic Crusades, the 30,000 Movement, the Stewardship Programs, and the Third Jubilee, the denominational press is being true to its responsibility in these matters.

In a recent Biblical Recorder was the heart-stirring article by Brother Earl Bradley on "The Shrinking Percentage" and his explanation of the "Two Plus Program For World Missions." If your reporter has any personal right in this meeting it would be to plead that every church fall in line with this plan, increasing its contributions to World Missions by 2% each year. What a glorious increase in the Cooperative Program would pour in to honor our Lord in whose name we serve.

Hence, let us study about mission needs, pray for the men and the money to support our WORLD MISSION PROGRAM.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. J. Ben Eller, Coats, N. C.

37. Following the singing of the hymn, "Lead On O King Eternal", by the congregation Brother Pinnix introduced Mrs. L. C. Pinnix who sang for special music, "The Great Commission."

38. The moderator introduced Rev. J. B. Hewett, pastor of the Eureka Baptist Church, who preached the Missionary Sermon, using as his text, I Timothy 6:12.

39. At the conclusion of the sermon the benediction was pronounced and the session recessed for lunch.

40. The session reconvened at 1:30 with the singing of the hymn, "Near the Cross", followed by the devotional led by Rev. Eugene Williams, Pastor of the Rawls Baptist Church, using as his subject, "The Task of the Churches."

41. Brother C. R. Ammons was recognized and gave the report of Brotherhood and spoke on it. The report was adopted as follows:

Report of Brotherhood

Our plan for 1957-58 for the Brotherhoods of the Little River Association was to encourage and stimulate the growth and expansion of the Brotherhoods in our association, using as our theme, "The Brotherhoods undergird all of the church's operations."

While various brotherhoods have undertaken many individual projects in their respective churches, the majority of the brotherhoods have been endeavoring to expand and further our Royal Ambassador Organizations.

The principle project during the year on an Associational level was the sponsorship of the Christian Education Day on May 15th. The need for wider support for our denominational schools and colleges was pointed out at this time at an Associational Meeting of our Brotherhoods in the Marshbanks Dining Hall at Campbell College. Claude Gaddy, Council on Christian Education, made the observation that we as Baptists were only furnishing facilities for educational training for one person out of every five coming from our Baptist homes here in North Carolina. From this sponsorship from the brotherhoods in the Association the following contributions were made to Campbell College as a special offering on Christian Education Day:

Dunn First	$2,206.30	Lillington	222.00
Macedonia	12.00	Holly Springs	12.00
Friendship	36.26	Erwin First	100.00
Hillmon Grove	25.26	Coats	50.00
Chalybeate Sp.	66.00	Buies Creek	377.00
Dunn Second	10.00	Erwin East	10.00
Angier	51.22	Swann's Station	58.36
Antioch	54.55	Totals	$3,291.44

Respectfully submitted,
C. R. Ammons

42. A second roll call of the churches revealed that all member churches were represented for either first or second day except Gourd Springs.

43. Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn was recognized and gave the report on Woman's Missionary Union. The report was adopted as follows:

Report on Woman's Missionary Union

There is organized mission work in 22 of the 32 churches in Little River Association. There is a full graded Woman's Missionary Union in 9 of the churches. These are: Angier, Antioch, Coats, Dunn First, Erwin First, Holly Springs, Lillington, Piney Grove, and Rawls. The total enrollment in all organizations is 84, a gain of 12 over the previous year. This year all the churches with Woman's Missionary Union work reported. Thank you so much.

Gifts to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering was $4,547.37, a gain of $457.01. Gifts to the Annie Armstrong was $1,707.11, a decrease of $130.25.

A leadership Conference for all Woman's Missionary Union Officers in the Association was held at the Chalybeate Springs Church with 71 present. A Regional Promotional Conference was held at the Temple Baptist. Associational meeting was held at Coats Baptist Church in April with 133 present.

The following meetings for the Young People were held:

1. May 9-11 State G. A. Queens Court at Campbell College. Our Association served refreshments to 364 girls on Friday night.

2. May 1, a G. A. Rally was held at Lillington Church with 203 present.

3. February 28, a Y. W. A. Banquet was held in Angier Church with 63 present.

Your Superintendent attended each of these meetings and also the State Conference and State Annual Meeting in New Bern.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn

44. In the absence of Lonnie Small, Brother L. C. Pinnix was recognized and gave the report on Training Union. He also spoke on it. The report was adopted as follows:

Report on Training Union

The close of this Associational year marks your Director's seventh year as Associational Training Union Director.

As I leave this important field of Christian service, I want to publicly thank all of those wonderful Christian men and women who have helped me in this great ever-increasing Christian responsibility. There are many things that we have left undone, but I feel that through their loyalty and unselfish devotion, we have accomplished much as the records will show.

During this year from an Associational level the Training Union has been Standard in that we have successfully held all of the required meetings.

Our "M" Night broke all records with an attendance of 611. This was by comparison with the number of churches involved, one of the better records in the state. Such cooperation from the pastors and churches greatly encouraged your Associational officers.

The "Mass Officers' Clinic" was indeed one of our best training efforts. Representative groups from 17 of the churches filled the Lillington Church.

This year our "Tournament Night" held in Angier was the best in many years. We had participants in every contest and 24 juniors were outstanding in the Junior Memory Work. In this tournament there was evidence of much effort in some of the churches in Training Union Work on a local church level. Those of us who feel that our efforts are in vain should attend a tournament night and hear our young people in the various contests. May God continue to richly bless Miss Bessie McNeil, Miss Zula Rogers and those other great Junior Leaders in our Association in Junior Memory Work.

Our most recent effort was a Mass Church Officers Clinic which we held in the Lillington Church on October 3rd. In spite of a rainy night, this was considered successful. The idea of training church officers is a good one and I hope it will be continued.

This years report on the number of study course awards was most encouraging.

As I leave this field of Christian endeavor, may I urge the Associational Officers to continue to work toward the following which we have had as our basic program.

1. Perfecting the unions already established.
2. Training the officers and leaders in each church.
3. Conducting the required number of Associational Mass Meetings.
4. Organizing New Unions.
5. Promoting Enlargement and Study Course programs.

I know that this program will work and develop for you trained Christian men and women if the Training Union is given its important proper place in the churches.

I wish for the New Director and the New Officers the blessings of God in this all important far reaching work. I offer my continued cooperation in any way that I can possibly be of service.

Respectfully submitted,
Lonnie D. Small

45. In the absence of Herman Phelps, Miss Carolyn Watkins was recognized and gave the report on Sunday Schools. The report was adopted as follows:

Report on Sunday School

Jesus established the church. He commissioned it in Matthew 28:19-20, which in part says, "Teach them to observe all things, whatsoever I have commanded." A properly functioning Sunday School guarantees that the Bible will be taught. Effective Bible study leads naturally to intensive effort toward reaching people, winning them to Christ and into Christian Service.

On behalf of the entire staff of Associational Sunday School Officers, let me pledge our adherence to the ideal that our task is one of service. Our only purpose is to help the churches, through proper use of their Sunday Schools, to reach the lost for Christ and lead the saved to acknowledge the Lordship of Christ in everyday living.

This year our Association is reporting 33 Churches and 35 Sunday Schools.

Achievements this past year include:

1. 33 Vacation Bible Schools for 2860 pupils, with 603 faculty.
2. One night training and planning clinic to help Associational Officers.
3. One standard Sunday School.

Goals for coming year:

1. 35 Vacation Bible Schools.
2. 10 churches to observe preparation week, September 21-27, 1959.
3. 2 new Sunday Schools.
4. 3 Sunday Schools achieve Standard of Excellence.

We respectfully make the following recommendations:

1. That we adopt for this year the theme, "Ye Are Witnesses."
2. That we major, in our Sunday School work, on more people in Bible Study. More effective Bible teaching and more people won, developed and enlisted.

3. That the Sunday School leadership in each church in our Association be urged to:

a. Establish a goal of 125 enrolled in Sunday School for each 100 church members.

b. Provide a training program which would include, January Bible Study Week, Preparation Week and Operation Home Study.

c. Adopt a goal of 1 baptism for each 8 church members.

d. Start a new Sunday School this year.

e. Move up the pattern of organization by starting new classes and departments.

4. That the Associational leadership be urged to:

a. Enlist a complete organization.

b. At a clinic, train the Associational Sunday School Officers and plan the help for the churches a year in advance.

c. Plan and direct Associational Group Training Schools.

d. Provide regular meetings for training and inspiration of the Sunday School workers in the churches.

Respectfully submitted,
Herman D. Phelps.

46. No one was present to speak on the Committee of 25 that had asked time on the program. Brother Russell gave a brief history of the Committee of 25.

47. Brother E. Weldon Johnson was recognized and presented the recommended change in the Associational Constitution, which recommendations were duly presented the day before. Brother Johnson moved that Article II be amended to read as follows:

The Association shall appoint annually an Executive Promotion Committee of fourteen members, among whom by virtue of their office are to be the moderator, the vice-moderator as chairman, clerk, treasurer, Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Brotherhood President, Woman's Missionary Union Superintendent, Director of Department of Church Music, Superintendent of Evangelism, and the Associational Missionary. This Committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Association during the interval between the meetings of the body; shall seek to promote the welfare of the churches, and their active participation in the causes fostered by the denomination; but shall be answerable to the Association for its acts, and make an annual report to the Association of its work. The Executive Promotion Committee shall meet once each quarter and upon other occasions on the call of the moderator.

48. The moderator recognized the committee on time, place, and preacher, which reported as follows: That the next annual meetings be held on Tuesday, October 27, 1959 with the Rawls Baptist Church and Wednesday, October 28, 1959 with the Harmony Baptist Church. That the Doctrinal Sermon be preached by E. Weldon Johnson, Jack Casey, Alternate. That the Missionary Sermon be preached by Walter F. Gentry, Irvin Stephens, Alternate. J. Ben Eller, Chairman, Jack Holt, Waymon Howard. The report of this committee unanimously adopted.

49. The moderator recognized the Committee on Nominations which report was unanimously adopted and appears on pages _____ of these minutes. Julius Holloway, Chairman, Zula Rogers, Roger Johnson.

50. The Moderator recognized the Committee on Budget which report was adopted as follows:

Budget for the Year 1958-1959

Missionary:
Salary	$3,200.00
Travel	1,200.00
Housing	800.00
Retirement	128.00
Printing, supplies and office	525.00
E. T. W.	175.00
General:
Expense of Association Officers	200.00
Printing of minutes	450.00
Clerk	50.00
Total	$6,728.00

$6,000.00 for missionaries home in addition to this budget.

Under item expense for Associational Officers the following request was made by the Budget Committee and approved by Association: To wit: That nothing beyond banners be purchased for any organization or meeting; that is that no prizes be purchased or offered. W. A. Johnson, Chairman, E. Weldon Johnson, Julius Holloway.

51. The Moderator recognized the Committee on Resolutions which report was adopted as follows:

Whereas God's grace and leadership have been experienced in this the eighty-third annual session of the Little River Baptist Association, be it resolved that we offer unto Him the thanksgiving of our hearts and the renewed consecration of our energies to the glory of His name and the coming of His Kingdom.

Whereas we have enjoyed the gracious hospitality of the people of the Angier Baptist Church and the Hillmon Grove Baptist Church be it resolved that we hereby express to them our heartfelt gratitude for the wise planning and providing for our physical needs in making these days pleasant and enjoyable.

Whereas the speakers and musicians have instructed and inspired us in the way of Christian progress and its beauty, be it resolved that our debt to them is great, and that it should be paid by unceasing efforts to heed their message and let it bear fruit in our midst.

Whereas the work of our Association has prospered in the hands of our general officers, be it resolved that they are hereby informed of our appreciation of their work. We are particularly grateful for the gracious and capable leadership of our Moderator, Rev. Ernest P. Russell, and for the faithfulness to the hard task exhibited by our Missionary and Clerk, Rev. Julius Holloway.

52. The Moderator appointed the following committees which were approved: Nominating, Julius Holloway, Chairman, L. C. Pinnix, Berles Johnson; Program, Walter F. Gentry, Chairman, Jack Casey, Julius Holloway; Admission of New Churches, E. Weldon Johnson, Walter F. Gentry, Julius Holloway, Ernest P. Russell.

53. Brother E. Weldon Johnson was recognized and read a letter from the people who own the house like the one had in mind for the missionary, describing the house in detail.

54. The Association, upon motion duly made and seconded, unanimously voted to dedicate the minutes of this session to Mrs. C. D. Bain, who served in the Sunday School Department of this Association, and as an approved State Sunday School worker, faithfully for many years.

55. In the absence of Mrs. W. E. Nichols, who was sick, the clerk read the names of our deceased. A complete list appears elsewhere in these minutes. After which Rev. J. Ben Eller led the Memorial Prayer and pronounced the benediction ending the eighty-third session of the Little River Baptist Association.

CONSTITUTION

1. This association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as an advisory council.

4. The association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the association shall be a moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the messengers composing the association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of the office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual session.

8. It shall be the duty of the moderator to preside during the deliberations of the body, to enforce the observance of the constitution, preserve the decorum, appoint a Nominating Committee, appoint committees except when other provisions are made for their appointment, decide all questions of order, giving his opinion or any question under discussion, and cast the deciding vote in case of a tie.

9. It shall be the duty of the clerk to record the proceedings of each annual meeting of the association, superintend the printing of the minutes and their distribution among the churches.

10. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the sessions of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds administered by him at each annual meeting.

11. The association shall appoint annually an Executive Promotion Committee of 14 members, among whom by virtue of their office are to be the Moderator, vice-moderator as chairman, clerk, treasurer, Associational Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union Superintendent, Superintendent of Evangelism, Brotherhood President, Associational Missionary, Director of Department of Church Music. This committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the association during the interval between the meetings of the body; shall seek to promote the welfare of the churches, and their active participation in the causes fostered by the denomination, but shall be answerable to the association for its acts, and make an annual report to the association of its work. The executive committee shall meet once each quarter and upon other occasions on the call of the moderator.

12. The association in annual meeting shall appoint a presbytery of four members to sit with the pastor of any persons whose ordination is sought, and the moderator of the association, to examine the qualifications and opportunities for work of the candidate.

13. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in October.

14. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the executive committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

15. This association shall have the right to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament Principles.

16. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may present a petition at the annual meeting of the body through messengers appointed for this purpose. Prior to the annual meeting the petition is to be studied by a standing committee of four members on Admission of New Churches. The Committee is to be elected by the association and the moderator is to be chairman. If the association shall consent to receive such church the moderator shall extend the hand of fellowship to the messengers.

17. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

18. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon, and a sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

19. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning of the day on which such motion will be presented.

20. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the association, who shall serve with the moderator, as the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The term of office of the trustees so elected shall continue until their successors are elected or until they shall be removed or deceased. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

MORNING SESSION

October 27, 1959

1. Following the musical prelude by Mrs. L. C. Pinnix, Rev. E. Weldon Johnson, Moderator, called the Eighty-fourth Session of the Little River Baptist Association to order at the Rawls Baptist Church at 9:30 A. M. on Tuesday, October 27, 1959.

2. Rev. L. C. Pinnix, with Mrs. Pinnix as pianist, led the assembled messengers in the singing of a hymn followed by a devotional led by Gene Akins, pastor of the Harmony Baptist Church.

3. At the roll call of the churches it was noted that all the member churches were represented except Eureka. Thereupon motion duly made and seconded that the registered Messengers and officers present constitute the Eighty-fourth Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association.

5. The Moderator announced the absence of the clerk, Rev. Julius Holloway, due to a death in his family and appointed Mrs. Preston Butts and Rev. G. Scott Turner to keep the records of the day.

6. G. Scott Turner was recognized and presented the following new pastors of the Assocation:

Rev. Joseph F. Bennett—Baptist Chapel, Broadway, and Swanns Station.
Rev. Colon S. Jackson, Jr.—Erwin, First.
Rev. G. Milton Bettini—Eureka.
Rev. George D. McKeithen—Laytons Chapel and Gourd Springs.
Rev. R. Gene Akins—Harmony.
Rev. Julian Motley—Rawls.
The followng ministers, not pastors now, are members of our churches: Lester Mann, Durham; Charlie Baker, Holly Springs; W. T. Campbell, Angier; E. C. Keller, Dunn; Sam F. Hudson, Dunn; Harold Pickett, Coats; Julius Holloway, Buies Creek; E. M. Walker, Buies Creek; I. K. Stafford, Buies Creek; and Bobby Pendergraph, Apex.

7. Walter F. Gentry, chairman of the Executive Committee, was recognized and the report of the committee, which report was adopted as follows:

Report of Executive Committee

I. Resume of Activities:

Your Executive Committee has held three meetings during the year. The Executive Committee was divided into three subcommittees, namely: Missions, Finance and Education, for the purpose of promoting the work.

1. Your committee authorized the treasurer of our Association to pay the Missionary $75.00 for expense to the Southern Baptist Convention.

2. Your committee approved application to the Baptist State Convention for $1,140.00 to assist our Association Missions program.

3. Under the guidance of your Executive Committee the work of the Association was promoted by your Missionary.

II. Recommendations:

1. That we commend the fine work done by the Associational Officers in Sunday School, Training Union, W. M. U., Brotherhood and Music Ministry.

2. That we urge all churches to cooperate fully with the activities of our Associational Officers.

3. That special prayer for our Associational Work be had in every church during the week recommended by our State Convention.

4. That each church adopt a sound financial plan, budget and enlistment, and that the membership be kept informed by regular reports.

5. That we commend our Missionary for the fine work and pledge him our support.

6. That the churches continue to support our Associational Missions Program with an amount equal to 3% of their budget exclusive of their building program, and that our treasurer be authorized to send quarterly a financial statement to each church treasurer and pastor.

7. That our churches support the Cooperative Program as the first way of giving since it is the channel through which our churches may support all of our Mission efforts and agencies.

8. That in view of the fact that the ratio of baptism to church membership in North Carolina is one to twenty-five and whereas the ratio in the Southern Baptist Convention is one to twenty-two we recommend that our churches increase the fires of evangelism and join wholeheartedly in the efforts to reach the approved baptism goals for our state of 47,762 in 1960, 50,322 in 1961, 58,262 in 1962, 66,109 in 1963, and 82,081 in 1964.

9. That we increase our Associational budget as follows: Associational Officers expense $200.00, Convention expense $100.00, office expense $50.00.

10. That we heartily commend the people of the Lillington and Antioch Churches for their work in organizing new missions. The Lillington Mission was organized in April, 1957. The Antioch Mission was organized in December, 1958.

11. That the Committee on a House for the Missionary publicize plans for such at the earliest possible date and urge our churches to send in contributions for the project on the basis of $1.00 per member as approved by our Association previously.

Respectfully submitted,
W. F. Gentry

8. The Moderator recognized Brother Scott Turner who read the report of the Associational Missionary and made the following motion: "That the report of the Associational Missionary be adopted and that we hereby express our deep appreciation to the missionary for the excellent work which he has done, which motion was adopted, the report is as follows:

Report of Associational Missionary

I would like to express my appreciation to everyone who has served in our Association this year and helped me do the things I have done. These are some of the things you have helped me do:

1. Served in five clinics for church and associational officers.

2. Spoke in five services to ordain deacons.

3. Attended twelve associational meetings.

4. Attended eleven regional and state meetings outside the Association.

5. Visited various churches not for special service 57 times to encourage the work.

6. Attended 25 services in the two missions to help with the work.

7. Attended three Executive Committee meetings, twelve WMU meetings, five R. A. meetings, six Brotherhood meetings.

8. Showed 38 films and filmstrips, taught 10 study courses, helped dedicate two pastor homes, helped conduct four funerals, spoke in five prayer meetings, helped Antioch church make a survey and organize a mission Sunday school.

9. Spoke to the Pastors Conference in Johnston Association on Associational Missions.

10. Preached in one revival in the Chowan Association.

11. Helped in eight Associational rallys, one sunrise service, four youth services, worked in six Vacation Bible Schools, served as Associational Clerk, held 2,500 individual conferences, 75 group and committee conferences.

12. Heard 25 professions of faith, devotions one week on WCKD, Dunn.

13. Spoke 25 times on State missions, Cooperative Program, Stewardship and Associational Missions. Met with other missionaries for one week at Caswell.

14. I have worked some on the mission building and also preached one Sunday a month at the Lillington Mission.Traveled 23,859 miles in above work.

Thank you for letting me serve in the above ways here in Little River this year. Please use me wherever I can help. I need your prayers, understanding and support. We need a secretary, office, and a Missionary Home for our Association. Let us go to work toward these.

Respectfully submitted,
Julius Holloway

9. Brother W. A. Johnson, Associational Treasurer, was recognized and informed those present of the embarrassment of the Treasurer when funds were too low to meet obligations and urged the churches to give liberally and regularly to the support of the Associational work. Remarks were also made by Ernest Russell and Leonard Thomas. After the remarks, Mr. Johnson gave the report, which was adopted as follows:

THE REPORT OF ASSOCIATIONAL TREASURER

The undersigned W. A. Johnson, Treasurer of the Little River Baptist Association, herewith makes to the Association his report covering all receipts and disbursements by him had and made during the period beginning October 1, 1958, and ending September 30, 1959, as follows:

These checks amount to $443.98. Therefore, our true balance as of September 30, 1959, was $478.25 less $443.98, or $34.27.

Comment

If our Associational Missionary Program is to move forward the churches of the Association MUST increase their support of this important phase of our work.

Respectfully submitted, this October 1, 1959.

W. A. Johnson, Treasurer
Lillington River Baptist Association

10. Rev. L. C. Pinnix led the Messengers in singing of a hymn.

11. L. H. Campbell was recognized for the report on Christian Education, who gave the report and in speaking to it laid on the hearts of the Messengers the matter of making Campbell College a four-year college. The report adopted as follows:

Report on Christian Education

Mirrors are universally regarded as indispensable in any modern home, because under proper conditions they help us see ourselves as we really are. But who of us has not at one time or another had the amusing experience of standing before a series of highly convexed and concaved mirrors and of seeing our physical proportions so distorted as to constitute a gross misrepresentation of our real likeness?

Likewise, society has established throughout the land schools and colleges to enable each rising generation to behold as in a mirror the truth as to the nature of its world, as to the origin and destiny of human life, and as to those well established principles essential to achieving the good life. As architects of tomorrow's world and as parents responsible for molding the character of our own children, we shall be most foolish not to realize that schools and colleges based upon a false philosophy of life may deceive and mislead our youth rather than guide them into the ways of peace and happiness. If our great mass of knowledge, accumulated through the ages, is presented in the wrong perspective by misguided teachers with false notions about what the true meaning of life is, education can largely undo all those precepts and practices that Christian homes and Christian churches have sought to establish in our children.

To be more specific the basic facts of arithmetic, georgraphy, history and the sciences are essentially the same whether taught in Russia or in America, in schools dominated by selfish materialistic philosophies or by Christian motivation. The thing of supreme importance to us is what conclusions are reached and what interpretations are placed upon the facts at hand.

When properly understood, there can be no conflict between truth discovered in the laboratory and truth that comes to us through divine revelation. Expressed in another way, all the facts about life, wherever discovered, are good in promoting peace, brotherhood, happiness and righteousness, if properly interpreted and put to use. If improperly interpreted and used, these same facts can destroy the human race that discovered them.

If we professing Christians pursue to its ultimate conclusion the biblical statement that Jesus is "the way, the truth, and the life," then all other ways of life, all alien conceptions of truth, and all rival motives for human endeavor, which might be variously described as materialistic, selfish, or paganistic, are utterly false. Moreover, they are antagonistic to the teachings of the Bible which is the Christian's book of authority.

One final conclusion seems inevitable. Christian education is an indispensable weapon of the Church in its defense against the materialism and paganism of our modern civilization. The citadel of our total Christian education program is the Christian college. Here we have preserved our most comprehensive collection of religious truth tested and proved through the ages. Here our foremost Christian scholars are engaged in projecting the application of Christian truth in the solution of increasingly complex problems of our modern world. To the Christian college we must look for an ever-increasing supply of spiritually-trained leadership for our expanding denominational program.

Respectfully submitted,
L. H. Campbell

12. A greeting from Mars Hill College was noted.

13. The Moderator called on the Vice-Moderator, Walter F. Gentry, to assume the chair at this time.

14. A report on P. O. A. U. was presented and spoken to by E. P. Russell.

15. The pastor of Rawls Church was called upon for announcements for the noon meal.

16. Brother L. C. Pinnix was called upon to introduce the Campbell College Choir, directed by Charles Horton. They gave a splendid program of inspiring music.

17. Brothers E. Weldon Johnson and Jack Casey were recognized. Brother Casey read the Scripture lesson, Matthew 17: 1-23. Brother E. Weldon Johnson preached the Doctrinal Sermon on the subject: "The Doctrine of the All Sufficiency of Christ."

18. At the conclusion of the sermon, Brother Johnson led in prayer and the meeting adjourned for lunch served by the Rawls Church.

19. The session reconvened in the afternoon at 1:30. Following the singing of a hymn, Rev. Colon Jackson, Jr., pastor of Erwin First Church, led the devotion.

20. The Moderator recognized A. W. Peede for the report on the Baptist Hospital. J. Roy Clifford, a trustee of the hospital, spoke on the report. The report was adopted as follows:

Report of Baptist Hospital Representative

We take great pride in the general program of our Baptist Hospital and especially in the fact that we have a personal part. I would remind you that this program is unique in many ways.

(1) First is the program for healing of the sick and injured. While we do not claim this to be different from any good hospital, we do say that our personnel and equipment is second to none.

(2) Second, our connection with Bowman Grey Medical School gives our hospital an advantage in teaching and training of young men and women in the field of Medical Science and Research.

(3) Third, our hospital seeks to emphasize the help and comfort of its patients with aid and advise about spiritual problems. In many cases the chaplain is as necessary to the complete recovery of the patient as is the physician.

(4) Fourth, our hospital has received this year a great amount of publicity and acclaim for its School of Pastoral Care where ministers are trained to work more effectively with the sick.

(5) Fifth, our record is still intact that no sick person has ever been turned away because of lack of means to pay for services.

Respectfully submitted,
A. W. Peede

21. In the absence of Brother Warren May, the report on the Homes for the Aging, as printed in the advance reports, was spoken to by Charles Burchette and adopted as follows:

Report on North Carolina Baptist Homes for Aging

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." (Matthew 25:40.)

The ninth year of operation of the Baptist Homes for Aging began March 16, 1959. All three of the Homes—Resthaven, Albemarle, and Headquarters—have had a good year, and have been filled practically all the year to capacity—119, counting residents and helpers. When vacancies occur, there are always more applications on the waiting list than rooms to be filled.

Since the average age of a resident is about 80 years old, there were several deaths during the year. Among the deceased was the oldest resident, "Uncle" John T. Holt, formerly of Wilsons Mills, N. C. He died July 13, being 99 years of age. Had he lived until February 26, 1960, he would have been ONE HUNDRED YEARS of age. He was a resident of the Homes nearly eight years, and for the past two years was a patient in the infirmary of the Headquarters Building. He was, indeed, a great soul, and all connected with the Homes keenly miss him.

This has been another year of God's favor upon the Homes and of encouraging progress. While the campaign to raise funds to build the fourth Home in Eastern Carolina, at Hamilton, has not been completed, yet there is good reason to believe that the money will be secured this year and construction will begin. Mr. Don G. Matthews of Hamilton, has given the land for the site, and most of the $50,000.00 which he promised. He is ready to give the balance when the extra $100,000.00 has been raised. With reorganization of plans and persistent effort, the balance needed can and will be forthcoming.

Architectural plans and specifications for the enlargement of the infirmary at Headquarters have been prepared, and construction of 28 additional bedrooms should begin by September or October.

The two most pressing needs of the Homes for Aging now are (1) to finish raising the funds to start construction of the Hamilton Homes, and (2) to raise about $75,000.00 to cover the balance needed to pay for the additional facilities in the infirmary expansion. So, a total amount of $150,000.00 must be raised, therefore, to finish these two projects. When they are completed, 60 more bedrooms will be added for anxious and needy residents, thus increasing the total capacity of all the Homes to 170 residents.

Would you like to have a generous part in helping to make these plans become a reality at the earliest possible date? If so, please let us hear from you at once. Why not furnish, or endow, or construct a room with your gift? If you are not able to do as much, send the amount you are able to give to N. C. Baptist Homes, Inc., Reynolds Park Road, Winston-Salem, N. C., and your gift will be used as you may instruct.

All connected with the N. C. Baptist Homes are most grateful to the churches, individuals, and corporations, for the help given to offer our aging friends who live in the Homes a program of security, comfort, congeniality, and a Christian ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
Warren H. May

22. The Moderator announced the appointment of the following committees:

(1) Time, Place, Preacher—Sam F. Hudson, Chairman; G. R. Wells and W. C. Stone.
(2) Resolutions—Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn, Chairman; Irvin Stephens and Miss Ada Overby.
(3) Finance—E. P. Russell, Chairman; Early Smith, H. Paul Strickland.
(4) Nominations—Julius Holloway, Chairman; R. Lewis Beal, Jack A. Holt.
(5) Program—Julius Holloway, Chairman; Mrs. Preston Butts.

23. Mrs. G. R. Souders was recognized for the report on Baptist Children's Homes. W. R. Wagonner spoke to the report which was adopted as follows:

Report on Baptist Children's Homes

North Carolina Baptists have shown remarkable interest in their Children's Homes during the past year. Numerous church groups have visited the three campuses. Continued financial support has been encouraging. Awakened interest in your Child Care Program has been evidenced in many respects.

More than 1,000 boys and girls were served by the Children's Homes during the past year. Mills Home, Kennedy Home and Odum Home provided care for 547 children while 197 lived in foster homes. Through financial assistance of the Mother's Aid Program 40 children were able to live with their mothers. Supervision and financial help were afforded 30 college students. Case workers assisted 214 additional children to find homes with relatives and other social service agencies.

Three cottages are under construction—one at each of the three homes. The Roy Culler family of High Point is providing funds for a boys' cottage at Mills Home. The H. C. Ferebee family of Camden is making possible a cottage for girls at Kennedy Home. The new cottage at Pembroke will provide administrative offices, living accommodations as well as kitchen and dining facilities for the Indian boys and girls.

Mr. Vernon S. Sparrow became superintendent at Mills Home, Thomasville, July 1, 1959. He comes to this post with an excellent background of training and experience. Prior to Mr. Sparrow's going to Mills Home he served as associate pastor and minister of Education in the First Baptist Church of Lenoir. The Baptist State Convention has voted to bring the Children's Home into the Co-operative Program on the same basis as all other institutions and objects. Churches may continue to send Once-A-Month offerings and special gifts. Designated gifts from the churches to the Children's Homes will be administered by the Convention in the same manner as designated gifts from churches to other institutions. The Homes are encouraged with this improved financial relationship with the Convention. For lack of sufficient income the Homes operated on a $22,000.00 deficit in 1958. The deficit for 1959 will be approximately $65,000.00. The only way the Homes have of meeting the $65,000.00 deficit is through a substantial increase in the Thanksgiving Offering.

With the increase in population, the development of industry, the growth of cities and the mounting tensions in present day society, there is an increasing demand for services to dependent children. Your Children's Homes are being asked by the Convention to expand their services. With your prayers, loyal and generous support, your leadership will continue to move forward as resources are made available.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. George Souders

24. Brother C. M. Hicks was recognized for the report on Ministers' Retirement. Which was spoken to by G. Scott Turner and adopted as follows:

Relief and Annuity Report

There are more than 5,300 retired, or disabled ministers and denominational workers or widows receiving benefits from the Annuity Board. The total benefits paid out in 1958 were $2,414,-767.90. Income from investments in 1958 totaled $2,424,377.92. Last year 98.25% of the Board's assets were invested in income producing investments.

North Carolina has 1,111 pastors and denominational workers enrolled in the Retirement and Protection Plan. We have a total of 334 aged ministers or their widows and retired workers receiving benefits amounting to $17,932.00 annually.

Even with the increase in new members, there are still more than 60% of our Southern Baptist pastors not covered by the Annuity Board's protection program. Until this figure is reduced or eliminated completely, the Board is not fulfilling its purpose of providing security and protection for every pastor and church.

Last year the Annuity Board members met with leaders of every state in the convention seeking a solution to this problem. As a result of these meetings, the Annuity Board is asking the local church's help in seeing that every pastor and church has this protection. Each church is being asked to enroll its pastor in the protection plan, paying two-thirds of the cost of the plan. The State Convention has already agreed to pay the other one-third for every pastor in its state. This protection plan is for the entire Southern Baptist ministry and not for just a small percentage of pastors.

It is easy to see why, with small salaries, the financial demands of the ministry, and the moral impossibility of supplementing that salary from outside sources, the pastor could not save enough money to provide for his old age, or for financial help for his family in case of his unexpected disability or death. This is where the Southern Baptist Protection Program comes in. It offers an annuity to be built up for the pastor, at a monthly cost shared by the church and the State Convention.

Practically all other major evangelical denominations which have been successful in enlisting the greater percent of their preachers in their protective program have used the method of asking the churches to pay the preacher's part as well as their own.

American Baptist	87%	Protestant Episcopal	100%
Lutheran	89%	Presbyterian USA	74%
Methodist	78%	Southern Baptist	35%

There are some thoughts that we need to give serious consideration:

1. That God's men are not to be objects of charity, rather "they that preach the gospel shall live of the gospel." They are opportunities for God's people to demonstrate their love and devotion for them and their work.

2. That any time a faithful preacher of the gospel is an object of poverty, it is a disgrace to the churches he has pastored and to the denomination that he has served. It is tragic indeed.

3. That preachers have made the greatest contribution to the welfare of mankind, both for time and eternity.

4. That the preacher deserves support when he is no longer able to serve as well as while he serves.

A. Our government provides for soldiers during battle as well as after the battle (hospitals, pensions, etc.).

B. When the faithful that has plowed the fields is no longer able to work, he is not turned out to starve.

Why not urge your church to participate in this plan. It protects the church as well as the pastor. In the future, when the pastor must retire because of age or disability, the church feels morally obligated to give him financial help. This help can be provided for him while he is serving the church. The same is true if the pastor dies unexpectedly. The widow will receive financial help that was provided ahead of time. Thus the church will not have the burden of trying to support two families.

I Corinthians 9:14: "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel."

I Timothy 5:8: "But if any provide not for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel."

Respectfully submitted,
C. M. Hicks

25. Brother R. H. Sorenson was recognized for the report on Christian Literature, which report was adopted as follows:

Christian Literature Report

It was Mark Twain who said: "Them that don't read are no better than them that can't!"

The publishing industry is recognized as a primary source of information and entertainment for the peoples of every land. You may ask, "are people reading all of this printed material?" If you should doubt this phenomonon for one minute, glance about you as you ride a bus or train—as you wait in a doctor's office, barber shop, or hotel lobby.

People are reading—impressions are being formed, and messages are being communicated, ten of thousands of them every hour of every day. To the student population in 106,000 schools in the U. S. below college and in 2,011 institutions of higher education, reading spearheads the advance of knowledge.

Paul said to Timothy, "give attention to reading."—We accept the fact that people are reading, but what are they reading? In the Estes Kefaufer study on obscene literature the record reveals that the large majority of our high school boys and girls see nothing amiss in whetting their appetites on the vulgar portroyals of vice and crime appearing on their hometown newsstands. Readers are spending a wholloping $350,000,000.00 annually for these paperback teenage teasers.

Southern Baptists have taken a firm stand against this loose, printed chicanery for decades now past. A vital part of our evangelistic and educational ministry pivots on the contents of our publications. Last year on the South-die level Broadman Press published 76 new titles in 4,263,910 volumes and 201 reprints in 2,069,116 volumes.

The Sunday School Board added several new periodicals, two of which are: The Church Administration Magazine and the Training Union Quarterly for the Deaf. The Library Service added 300 new libraries to bring the total to more than 6,700 in Southern Baptist churches.

At the State level the 26 State Conventions' weeklies now circulate 1,365,711 issues among more than 9,000,000 Southern Baptists. This number ought surely to be 3,000,000. Here in N. C. The Biblical Recorder, the oldest institution among North Carolina Baptists, sends 62,750 copies into Baptist homes each week. With nearly 1,000,000 members on our church rolls this circulation should surely be 100,000. We wanted you messengers and friends of The Little River Association to become better acquainted with your official State publication so we have arranged to have your personal copy presented to you three days early this week by three charming young ladies. Miss Mary Susan Ragland of the Campbell College Public Relations Staff, Miss Iris Cates and Miss Judy Currin, both first year students at the college. All three are natives of Buies Creek and members of the Buies Creek Church.

It will be interesting to note the auditors' statement for the Biblical Recorder which reports a cost of $2.71 per person per year for sending one Biblical Recorder into one home each week during the year. The rate for an individual subscription is $2.50 per year. The Club Plan rate is $2.00 per year. This plan needs at least four subscriptions to begin a club. The Every Family Plan is the most economical at $1.50 per year or 12½ cents per month. Under this plan the local church puts the Recorder in its budget and the publication is mailed directly to each family. There are some 400 of our churches in North Carolina who realize the importance of having an informed church fellowship and are, at the present time, subscribing to this plan. Little River Association is above average in this respect with 26 out of 33 churches participating.

Every pastor in the State should be on the pastors' list to receive a copy of the Recorder at no charge.

Dr. Porter Routh said not long ago in Nashville that it takes about 10 years to institute a program of work among Baptist people from the time the idea is conceived until it becomes an accepted "good" across our Convention. These years could be reduced to months if all of our Baptist churches would accept our State papers and other top-level publications as communication instruments dedicated to the task of heralding the Kingdom of God and His work among His people.

Respectfully submitted,
Roald H. Sorensen

26. Brother G. Scott Turner was recognized for the Report on Evangelism, spoken to by Julian Hopkins, and adopted as follows:

Report on Evangelism

Baptists of America are celebrating, or preparing to celebrate, one hundred fiftieth anniversary of organized Baptist work which takes place in the year 1964. Southern Baptist are celebrating this important event with a five-year Jubilee Advance Program which places the following emphasis:

1959—Cooperative Witness.
1960—Bible Teaching and Training.
1961—Stewardship and Enlistment.
1962—Church Extension.
1963—World Missions.
1964—Third Jubilee Celebration.

This year the Little River Association co-operated with this program by taking part in the great Simultaneous Evangelistic Crusade. Much work was done in an effort to make this Crusade a success. The co-operation of the resident pastors and the churches having resident pastors was splendid. Unfortunately the same cannot be said of the non-resident pastors though some of them did take a good part in the Crusade.

Statistically the Crusade was only a limited success. Based on reports from 28 of our churches, additions by baptism exceeded those of the previous year by 49. However, only eternity can reveal how much was accomplished by the inspiration, training of witnesses and teaching of methods given during this effort.

Your committee is greatly disturbed by the fact that six churches in our Association reported no baptisms during the year and two of these have had no additions by baptism for two years.

We offer the following recommendations:

1. That the work of evangelism receive constant emphasis in our churches.

2. That the Little River Association co-operate heartily in the Jubilee Advance Prorgam of Southern Baptists.

3. That a committee be appointed by the Association to promote the Jubilee Advance Program in all of our churches.

Respectfully submitted,
G. Scott Turner, Chairman,
Committee on Evangelism.

27. Following the report on Evangelism, the Moderator appointed the following committee to lead the Association in the celebration of the Third Jubilee of Organized Baptist Work: G. Scott Turner, Chairman; Ernest P. Russell and Jack Casey.

28. The clerk was instructed to send messages of condolence to our Associational Missionary, Julius Holloway, and his wife, in the loss of a loved member of their family. And also a message to Rev. and Mrs. J. Ben Eller, who was prevented from attending this session because of illness.

29. The Moderator announced that there were 181 registered messengers and that all member churches were represented except Eureka.

30. The Moderator expressed appreciation of the Associaton for the hospitality of the Rawls Church.

31. On motion made and duly seconded the session adjourned to meet the following day, October 28, at 9:30, with the Harmony Baptist Church.

32. The Association reconvened for the second day at 9:20 A. M. at the Harmony Baptist Church and opened with the singing of a hymn, led by L. C. Pinnix; Leonard Thomas, pastor of the East Erwin Baptist Church, led the devotion.

3. In the miscellaneous business that followed, the chairmen of the various committees that had been previously appointed, called meetings of their committee members for the lunch hour.

34. The Moderator called on the clerk-missionary for anything he wished to say. Whereupon, he expressed his regrets in not being there the day before and thanks to Mr. Turner and Mrs. Butts for recording the first day's meeting.

35. Brother E. P. Russell was recognized and presented a recommended change in Article 20 of the Constitution, notice having been given the day before. Brother Russell made the motion that the words, "be for six years, and shall be so arranged that the term of one trustee shall expire at the Annual Session of the Association held every even year, but the trustees elected shall," be deleted from Article 20, making Article 20 read as follows: The Association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the Association, who shall serve with the Moderator, as the trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the Association. The term of office of the trustees so elected shall continue until their successors are elected or until they shall be removed or deceased. The Moderator of the Association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

Upon motion duly made and seconded the recommended change was unanimously approved.

36. Brother Sam Hudson was recognized for the Report of the American Bible Society, which report, after spoken to by him, was adopted as follows:

Report on the American Bible Society

The American Bible Society is a missionary organization supported by gifts. It is dedicated to the work of publishing and distributing the Bible to all the people in all the world, and in the native language of each language group. It supplies Bibles to missionaries, colporteurs, and chaplains, and to all who will distribute and read them. This is done without profit, and usually below cost.

Since its organization, it has published and distributed more than five hundred million scripture volumes in many languages. Many of these volumes have been distributed by Southern Baptist missionaries.

Southern Baptists consider the American Bible Society an essential part of their own world-wide mission program. Because the Bible Society serves mission work—and because Southern Baptist missionaries depend on the Society for Scriptures they need for distribution in their own work—Southern Baptist churches give to the American Bible Society.

It is desirable that each church in our association put an amount in their budget for the Bible Society. It is a worthy cause doing a noble work, and is entitled to our support.

Respectfully submitted,
Sam F. Hudson

37. Mrs. D. B. Andrews was recognized for the Report on World Missions. The following spoke to it: Foreign Missions, Robert Lindsey, Missionary to Israel; Home Missions, Louis Gaines, Board member of Home Mission Board; State Missions, Clyde Davis, State Brotherhood Secretary; Associational Missions, Paul Nix, Missionary in Johnston Association. The report was adopted as follows:

Report on World Missions

The constitution of the Southern Baptist Convention declares the purpose of the Convention to be that of eliciting, combining and directing the energies of the denomination for the propagation of the gospel. This Southern Baptist task is given in the great commission, which is a concise summary of the work which Jesus left for His disciples to do. It is therefore of major importance to Baptists. The obligation is binding for many reasons. Great is the need on every hand. Men are lost. Hundreds of millions of people are hungry. Millions are sick and need help. God wills that none should perish. He gives an invitation for all to come to Him, and He calls for messengers to deliver His message to those who live in darkness. He calls upon us whom He has saved and prepared to be His messengers, not to fail Him in His Purpose, or the sinner in his need.

Dr. Baker James Cauthen, in a recent report says, "We are constantly impressed by the fact that the population of the world is increasing so explosively as to exceed our christian effort. This means that annually a larger percentage of the worlds people are non-christian than before. The answer to this situation must be in greater emphasis upon evangelism and church development.

This means that across the world every aspect of the work of evangelism must be accelerated. Churches will increasingly undertake to make evangelism the heart of their daily ministry. This will call for developing to the greatest degree the work of the churches in Bible teaching, membership training, stewardship, missionary activities, and all of the aspects of church life."

During the year 1958 our Foreign Mission Board appointed 137 new missionaries. More have been appointed in 1959. According to the latest figures released by the Board we now have 1355 active missionaries on Foreign fields. We believe it will be possible by the end of 1964 when the Jubilee Advance comes to a close, to have under appointment no fewer than 2000 missionaries. There is a place of need for each one of them. If they were available they could be placed immediately. We are advancing along clearly defined lines whcih have been studied carefully by mission organizations and the Foreign Mission Board. By the time we have 2000 missionaries, all fields will have been strengthened, and new areas will have been entered. A study of our advance in the three broad areas of our work will bring blessings to every heart. We will see that missionaries are more urgently need than ever in the history of Foreign Mission enterprise.

On April 8, 1959, it was my privilege to be present for the dedication of our new Headquarters Building of the Foreign Mission Board in Richmond, Va. We were impressed with the importance of our task as we learned that during the past ten years the staff had been increased from 43 to nearly a hundred. We were also blessed by the report of advance in many areas of our work.

In June, during Foreign Missions week at Ridgecrest we experienced a thrilling service when 18 new missionaries were appointed to Foreign Service. The testimonies of these young men and women was a benediction to those present. Sunday morning at the close of Dr. Cauthen's message 160 young men and women walked down the aisles of that great auditorium surrendering their all on the altar of service. Particularly heartening is the fact that large numbers of pastors and other church leaders who are already serving in strategic places of responsibility in the home land are offering themselves to go to the mission fields.

Southern Baptists demonstrated throughout 1958 a determination to provide financial reinforcement for mission expansion. A greater degree of support than ever has been provided through the Cooperative Program and the Lottie Moon Christmas offering. It should be remembered, however, that many needs are still unmet on mission fields because funds are not available.

We will soon be observing our week of prayer for Foreign Missions. One missionary wrote: "If you knew what your prayers mean in giving strength to our efforts, everyone of you would be praying." In our prayers and in sacrificial giving, we share in our Lord's plan for the salvation of a lost world. What do you have that you can give? It may be that the Lord would call that son or daughter of yours to some place of service in His Kingdom. For some of us it could be a grandchid that we might offer. Within the sound of my voice there may be some who could say: "Here am I Lord, send me."

Down through the ages, we hear the echo of His promise, "Lo I am with you always even to the end of the world."

Respectfully submitted,
Annie W. Andrews

38. Brother L. C. Pinnix was recognized and presented the Lillington Baptist Trio for special music.

39. The Moderator introduced Walter F. Gentry, pastor of the Antioch Baptist Church, who preached the Missionary Sermon.

40. At the conclusion of the sermon, Benediction was pronounced, and the session recessed for lunch, served by the Harmony Baptist Church.

41. The session reconvened at 1:30. After singing a hymn, Brother Thomas Meshoe, pastor of Baptist Grove Church, led the devotion.

42. Brother Clyde Davis was recognized to speak on Brotherhood. State Brotherhood secretary.

43. Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn was recognized for the Report of Woman's Missionary Union, who called attention to the printed report and introduced Mrs. W. K. McGee, State Woman's Missionary Union President, for the message. The report was adopted as follows:

Woman's Missionary Union Report of 1958-59

The year which has just closed marks the beginning of the Third Jubilee Advance. This is a movement in which the major Baptist fellowships of North America are cooperating to reach people with the full force of their Christian witness and to lead them to experience the new birth and freedom through faith.

The Baptist Jubilee Year is 1964. The purpose of the five-year program of advance has been stated thus: TO WORK CO-OPERATIVELY, TO WITNESS EFFECTIVELY, TO CELEBRATE WORTHILY. This advance is an attempt to quicken within all Baptist people a sense of responsibility for zealously carrying out the Great Commission.

The women of Little River took as their goal in this Advance Movement the organizing of mission work in five churches which have no type of mission organization. Our aim was to reach one church per year for the five-year period. That accomplishment was this year.

There is organized work in 13 of the 33 churches. The total WMU enrollment is 2,006, an increase of 48 over last year. There was an increase of 152 in subscriptions to the magazines, 15 in number of mission study books taught, 106 in number of members reading a mission book.

Special offerings to missions were as follows:

Lottie Moon Christmas offering $6,648.90, 24% increase over last year.

Annie Armstrong offering $2,428.24, 42% increase over last year.

Heck-Jones $411.58, a fraction of 1% decrease.

State $1,158.76, this was not promoted by WMU last year.

A leadership conference was held in October, 1958, Erwin First Church, for all officers and counselors, 85 were present. Annual Associational WMU meeting was held on April 17, Buies Creek Church, with 157 present.

An Associational YWA banquet was held on February 12, Erwin First Church, with 63 present.

On January 15 an Associational Mission Study Institute was held in the Lillington church under the direction of Mrs. Lewis Beal, chairman, with 37 present.

The Associational WMU sponsored a silver tea on January 19, honoring Miss Majorie Spence who was returning to Chile for another period of service as missionary. There were 102 registered guests with an offering of $231.50.

On 26, the WMU and General Association sponsored a Mission Rally honoring Dr. and Mrs. Connell Smith who were going to Africa as missionaries. A love offering of $419.07 was presented to them.

Your Associational WMU president attended all Associational meetings during the year, also the Regional, State and Southwide.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn

44. Brother E. C. Keller was recognized for the report on Social Service and Civic Righteousness, who gave the report and spoke on it. The report adopted as follows:

Report on Social Service and Civic Righteousness

It is next to impossible to give, in detail in any comprehensible way, what the churches of Little River Baptist Association have done during the past year in the field of Social Service and Civic Righteousness. It would be entirely misleading if there were not some appraisal, or mention of the work done among the churches in this field.

The difficulty is that Social Service and Civic Righteousness become a part of every phase of the Church's activities. Therefore, we could say that all of the churches have contributed in a general way. Of course, some churches have a greater opportunity than others. They have more members, more money and more organizations.

We cannot narrow the subject down to any one phase of Christian activity such as the liquor question. Social Service and Civic Righteousness covers a far wider field than the task of combatting the evils of intoxicating liquors. For instance, we have the underprivileged, the delinquent, both adult and juvenile. We still have filthy literature available to the public, etc. Also, there is another evil which is hard to detect that is doing a great harm. Actually it is a cause of much of the other evils that menace our day. That evil is a lack of right relationship, a lack of love, of understanding in the home and in the church. Left alone cold is a terrible blow.

The need is so great that what the churches are doing in a general way is so covered up the increased evil that the average work of the church is almost made null. There is no doubt about it, the churches of this association are definitely increasing their efforts but not fast enough.

Respectfully submitted,
E. C. Keller

45. Brother L. L. Coats, Sr., was recognized for the Report on Training Union, which was adopted as follows:

Training Union Report

At the beginning of the year our Associational officers adopted the Standard as a guide to work toward; feeling that reaching the Standard would be a good starting point for a greater Associational program of work. We failed to reach the Standard by two points, but have resolved to work harder to reach it in the new year.

The four executive meetings have been well attended with good planning and participation by all the officers.

The following mass meetings and conferences were held during the year:

1. Associational Church Officers and Committee Clinic, October 3, at Lillington.

2. "M" Night, December 1, Dunn, First—468 present—19 churches represented. Theme: "Thou Art the Christ."

3. Combined Officers and Leaders Conference and Mass Meeting, February 8, at Piney Grove Church—110 present—15 churches represented. Theme: "Those We Have Won."

4. Youth Night—April 12, Coats Baptist Church—79 present—7 churches represented. This was the first Youth Night held in this Association. We were well pleased with the interest shown and plan to put even more thought and work into planning the one next year.

5. Tournament Night, April 14, Buies Creek Church. 101 present—13 churches represented. There were 37 participants in the Tournaments. There were 24 Junior Memory Work winners, a winner from each of the Adult Scripture Reading, Young People's Better Speakers Tournament and Intermediate Sword Drill. Our Associational Young People's Better Speakers, Jo Jernigan, Dunn, First, was a regional winner and represented us well in the State Tournament. Twenty-three of our Juniors were State winners.

6. Officers and Leaders Conference, May 24, Friendship Church—30 present—9 churches represented. Special emphasis: "Monthly Officers and Leaders Council for the Training Union."

7. Officers and Leaders Conference and Mass Meeting Combined, September 20, Holly Springs Church—108 present—13 churches represented. Special emphasis: "Keeping and Using Good Records." Our State Training Union Secretary, Mr. James P. Morgan, was our speaker for the Mass Meeting.

Your Associational Director has visited during the year in 28 of the 33 churches. Other officers have made many visits and contacts encouraging attendance at the Associational Meetings and promoting all the activities sponsored by the Training Union. We have sought to help in all the Training Unions and to encourage organizing unions in churches where there is no Training Union. One nursery has been organized this year. There were given in the Association 873 Study Course Awards for Training Union Credit.

Worthy goals for various Training Union activities have been set for the new year. We solicit the prayers and support of all the churches in the Association to help reach these goals as a means to a greater Training Union Program in our churches.

I want to express my appreciation to all the churches and to all my co-workers for their fine spirit of cooperation in carrying on the Training Union work of this Association.

Respectfully submitted,
L.L . Coats, Sr.

46. Miss Carolyn Watkins was recognized for the Report on Sunday School, which was adopted as follows:

Sunday School Report

The Holy Spirit has revealed to the minds of men methods by which the good news can be published. In Southern Baptist churches the Sunday schools have proved the most effective means of teaching the Word of God.

The Sunday schools have the facilities for locating the people who need to be reached, they have the organization for the necessary division of labor in reaching them, and the teaching force to teach the Bible. Effective Sunday schools also lead pupils into the Sunday morning preaching service and weekday revival services where the evangelistic harvest is reaped.

The Associational Sunday school officers have the opportunity and privilege of helping each church in the Association to know more about the Sunday school program for each year. They also stand ready to help the churches, as needed, to put this program of work into action as adapted and adopted by the churches.

This year our Association is reporting 33 churches and 35 Sunday schools. Below are some of the achievements of the past year:

1. 31 Vacation Bible Schools.
2. 1 Standard Vacation Bible School.
3. 1 Standard Sunday School.
4. A One-night Training and Planning Clinic to Help Associational Officers.
5. An Increase in Study Course Awards Earned.

The following goals have been adopted for the new year by your Associational Officers:

1. 34 Vacation Bible Schools.
2. 25 Churches Observing January Bible Study Week, January 4-8, 1960.
3. 10% Increase in Enrollment.
4. 1,000 Study Course Awards Earned.

The theme for the 1959-60 Sunday School Program is "Teaching Them . . . All Things." This suggested program will help our churches deepen the preparation of their workers, extend the reach of their church, increase their evangelistic harvest, magnify their Bible teaching and reinforce their spiritual ties with the homes of theirm embership.

A wonderful year of opportunity lies ahead for our Associational Sunday school organization and I am sure that Rev. C. M. Hicks, the new superintendent, and his co-workers, will accept the challenge and lead us in a fine way. They will need our prayers and our support in every way to do an effective job.

Respectfully submitted,
Miss Carolyn Watkins.

47. The Moderator called for a vote of commendation and praise for all the Associational officers for their work during the past year, and a pledge of support of the new officers, which vote was unanimous.

48. Brother E. P. Russell was recognized and presented the following motion:

I move that the Moderator be instructed to appoint an Association Missionary Home Building Committee, composed of seven (7) members, four (4) of which shall come from the Executive Committee of the Little River Association, the chairman of the trustees, two (2) members-at-large, the Moderator to be ex-officio.

The duties of the committee to be:

(1) Draw up plans for the proposed home.

(2) Publicize the plans and solicit contributions from the churches on the basis of $1.00 per member.

(3) As soon as adequate funds are available to proceed with the building and financing of the complete job.

Committee appointed as follows:

E. P. Russell, Chairman, Dunn; Jack Holt, Rt. 2, Angier; Irvin Stephens, Lillington; Colon Jackson, Erwin; L. L. Coats, Dunn; C. M. Hicks, Broadway; Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn, Mamers.

49. Report of the following committees called for:

(4) Jubilee Celebration—Scott Turner, E. P. Russell, Jack Casey. Report adopted as follows:

(5) Resolutions—Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn, Irvin Stephens, Miss Ada Overby. Report adopted as follows:

Your Committee on the celebration, in our Association, of the 150th Jubilee program urges that all the churches in our Association conduct a week of Bible Study in January (The Epistles to Timothy are the suggested subject this year) and that they foster several study courses in the churches during the year and that group study courses be fostered by the association.

Report of Resolutions Committee

The Little River Baptist Association in its Eighty-fourth Annual Session, meeting with the Rawls Baptist Church on October 27 and with the Harmony Baptist Church on October 28, desires at this time to offer resolutions of thanks to:

(a) The hosts churches for their gracious hospitality, for the bountiful supply of delicious food, for the lovely floral arrangements which graced the sanctuary, and for the warm fellowship which we experienced in their midst.

(b) To each messenger who was interested enough in the work of their local church and the Association to attend this meeting.

(c) To the program committee for their efforts in planning a most interesting and inspiring program.

(d) To each person on the program for their good reports and splendid messages.

(e) To Rev. E. Weldon Johnson and Rev. Walter F. Gentry for the very stirring and most inspiring sermons.

(f) To Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Pinnix for their contribution in music.

(g) To Campbell College Choir and Lillington Baptist Trio for their rendition of special music.

(h) To Rev. G. Scott Turner and Mrs. Preston Butts as co-workers filling the office of clerk in the absence of Brother Julius Holloway.

(i) To our Moderator Rev. E. Weldon Johnson and our Treasurer, W. A. Johnson, for their work, not only during these days together, but throughout the year.

(j) To Rev. Julius Holloway, our Associational Missionary, our very deep gratitude for his consecrated life, his very faithful service in all phases of the Associational work, and his willingness to go the second mile in all he is asked to do.

(k) To Rev. Julius Holloway we express our regret at his absence from the meeting on the first day and extend to him and his family our deepest sympathy in the bereavement of Mrs. Holloway's sister, Mrs. Leacy Johnson, who was laid to rest on October 27, 1959.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Harvey O'Quinn, Chairman,
Miss Ada Overby
Rev. Irvin Stephens

50. The Moderator expressed appreciation for the hospitality of Harmony Church and announced that all churches had been represented except Eureka. 181 present the first day and 178 the second day for a total of 359 registered messengers for the Eighty-fourth Session of Little River Association at Rawls and Harmony Churches.

51. Mrs. Walter F. Gentry was recognized for Memorials. After reading a list of our beloved dead, which appears elsewhere in the Minutes, Mrs. Gentry called upon Rev. G. Scott Turner, who led the memorial prayer and pronounced the Benediction, ending the Eighy-fourth Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association.

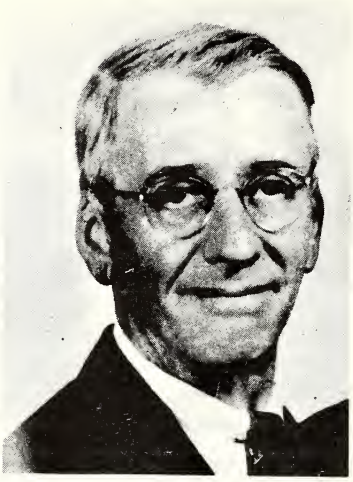
DEDICATION OF 1960 MINUTES
IN MEMORIAL OF REVEREND WILLIAM THOMAS CAMPBELL



The Reverend William Thomas Campbell was born August 8, 1889, near Angier in Harnett County, the oldest son of Mr. J. D. and Mrs. Catherine Campbell. He married Miss Mattie Jane Hamilton May 10, 1910, who with three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyett, Clinton; Mrs. Mabel Roberts, Angier; and Mrs. Ellen Johnson, Lillington; and one son, Mr. Lewis Campbell, Fuquay Springs, survive.

While serving as Sunday School Superintendent at Neill's Creek Baptist Church, Reverend Campbell was called into the pastoral ministry. Shortly afterwards he enrolled at Campbell College where his period of study extended over the two school terms--1914 to 1915 and 1919 to 1920. His first pastorate was at Bethel Baptist Church in the Little River Association. From this pastorate he went to Beulah Baptist Church near Clinton, a church in the Eastern Association; and later his ministry went into the New South River Association where he served as pastor of Brown's, Mary's Chapel, and Spring Branch Baptist Churches. After his retirement from the pastoral ministry, he returned to his family homeplace near Angier, and until bad health confined him to his home he served as the teacher of the Men's Bible Class of Neill's Creek Baptist Church.

Reverend Campbell's life has been one that was dedicated to his Lord, his church, his family. His interest was always in the promotion of God's kingdom. His concern was that he might be found faithful in his many duties and responsibilities. His love ever reached out to his family and friends. On February 9, 1960, Reverend Campbell went to be with his Lord; but even though he is absent in body, his spirit of devotion and his good works remain.

DEDICATION OF 1960 MINUTES
IN MEMORIAL OF MR. GEORGE BRITTON

Mr. Britton was a native of Whiteville, North Carolina, and attended the public schools there. As a young man in Whiteville, he was active in business and church life of that city.

In the year 1931 he moved to Dunn. He was married to Elizabeth Thornton in 1936. He leaves two children, a daughter Anne, and a son Harry.

He was one of the most highly respected business men in Dunn, having been active in the hardware business, and at the time of his death was owner of Britton's Hardware.

Since his coming to Dunn, he has been a member of the First Baptist Church and served in various offices in the Sunday School, Training Union, Church, and the Association. For a number of years he was a deacon in his church. He gave of himself, his time, and his money in the support of the work of the church. In all phases of the church program - soul-winning, teaching, and training - he was faithful.

He was always ready to assist his pastor in any capacity possible. He could always be depended on to transport young people to various associational and state meetings.

He loved Christ and the work of the church. He performed well all the tasks assigned to him. He was loved, respected, and appreciated by his fellow church members.

CONSTITUTION

1. This association shall be known as "Little River Baptist Association."

2. The object of this association shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the means of accomplishing this shall be in strict conformity with the principles of the New Testament.

3. The association shall have no authority over the internal right of any church belonging to it and shall act only as an advisory council.

4. The association shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches connected with it, each church being entitled to five messengers, plus one additional messenger for each one hundred members or fraction thereof. Ordained ministers having oversight of the churches in the association, or having their membership in these churches, shall be received as messengers.

5. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the churches of the association.

6. The messengers from each church to the annual meeting of the association shall bear a letter certifying their appointment and giving an account of the condition of the church and a statement of all funds contributed for local and benevolent purposes.

7. The officers of the association shall be a moderator, a vice-moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from the messengers composing the association, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The term of the office of the moderator shall begin at the conclusion of the session at which he is elected and continue until the close of the next annual session.

8. It shall be the duty of the moderator to preside during the deliberations of the body, to enforce the observance of the constitution, preserve the decorum, appoint a nominating committee, appoint committees except when other provisions are made for their appointment, decide all questions of order, giving his opinion on any question under discussion, and cast the deciding vote in case of a tie.

9. It shall be the duty of the clerk to record the proceedings of each annual meeting of the association, superintend the printing of the minutes and their distribution among the churches.

10. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds sent by the churches or collected during the sessions of this body and to disburse the same for the objects stated. He shall present a report on all funds administered by him at each annual meeting.

11. The association shall appoint annually an Executive Promotion Committee of 14 members, among whom by virtue of their office are to be the Moderator, vice-moderator as chairman, clerk, treasurer, Associational Sunday School Superintendent, Training Union Director, Woman's Missionary Union Superintendent, Superintendent of Evangelism, Brotherhood President, Associational Missionary, Director of Department of Church Music. This committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the association during the interval between the meetings of the body; shall seek to promote the welfare of the churches, and their active participation in the causes fostered by the denomination, but shall be answerable to the association for its acts, and make an annual report to the association of its work. The executive committee shall meet once each quarter and upon other occasions on the call of the moderator.

12. The association in annual meeting shall appoint a presbytery of four members to sit with the pastor of any persons whose ordination is sought, and the moderator of the association, to examine the qualifications and opportunities for work of the candidate.

13. The association shall hold an annual meeting commencing on Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in October.

14. A meeting of the association may be called by the moderator at any time by the consent of five members of the executive committee. Each church shall be notified of such a meeting in time to send messengers.

15. This association shall have the right to exclude from its membership any church that departs from New Testament Principles.

16. Any church desiring to become a member of this association may present a petition at the annual meeting of the body through messengers appointed for this purpose. Prior to the annual meeting the petition is to be studied by a standing committee of four members on Admission of New Churches. The Committee is to be elected by the association and the moderator is to be chairman. If the association shall consent to receive such church the moderator shall extend the hand of fellowship to the messengers.

17. The association may invite visitors to seats and extend to them all the privileges of the messengers except that of voting.

18. By appointment, at each annual meeting, an introductory sermon, and a sermon or address on missions shall be delivered.

19. This constitution may be amended at any annual session, by a vote of two-thirds of the messengers present, provided that notice shall be given in the morning of the day on which such motion will be presented.

20. The association shall elect three trustees from the members composing the association, who shall serve with the moderator, as the Trustees of the Little River Baptist Association, and whose duty it shall be to take and hold title to the property, both real and personal, owned by the association. The term of office of the trustees so elected shall continue until their successors are elected or until they shall be removed or deceased. The moderator of the association shall serve as a trustee until such time as his successor is elected and qualified.

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

MORNING SESSION

October 25, 1960

1. The Eighty-fifth Annual Session of the Little River Baptist Association opened at 9:20 A.M., October 25, 1960, in the Baptist Grove Baptist Church with a period of devotion. Brother Jeff Roberts, minister of music of the First Church, Dunn, led the Association in song and the Associational Choir in special music. Brother Donald Bowen, pastor of the Lillington Church, gave scripture, comments, and prayer.

2. The moderator, E. Weldon Johnson, called on the clerk for the roll call of the member churches. All churches answered roll call except three whose messengers came in later.

3. The moderator called upon the clerk for a motion for organization, which motion was made by him and duly seconded that those now present, messengers and officers, constitute the Eighty-fifth Annual Session of the Little River Association, which motion was approved.

4. The moderator called upon the program chairman to present the proposed order of business which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

I. Resume of Activities:

Your committee held three meetings during the year in an effort to give general guidance to the work of our Association and assist our Missionary in the promotion of the work.

1. Your committee approved application to the Baptist State Convention for $1,140 to assist our Associational Mission Program.

2. Your committee considered at length a new Associational Calendar.

II. Recommendations:

1. That we commend the fine work done by the Associational Officers in Sunday School, Training Union, W.M.U., Brotherhood and Music Ministry and that we heartily commend our Missionary for the fine job he has done and pledge him anew our support and cooperation.

2. That we urge all churches to cooperate fully with the activities of our Associational Officers.

3. That special prayer for our Associational work be had in every church during the week recommended by our State Convention.

4. That we adopt the recommendation to be presented to the Associational Program, and that each church be encouraged to accept its share of the responsibility, and that our Treasurer be authorized to send quarterly a financial statement to each church treasurer and pastor.

5. That our churches increase their financial support of the Cooperative Program as the first way of giving since it is the channel through which our churches may support all our Missions efforts and agencies.

6. That the Moderator be requested to appoint a Policy Committee to outline duties and privileges of the Missionary and other Associational Officers and present recommendations to the Executive Committee and to the Association.

7. That the Association adopt the New Calendar of Activities as recommended and found elsewhere in the Minutes.

Respectfully submitted,
Walter F. Gentry

7. Julius Holloway, associational missionary, was recognized for his report which was adopted as follows:

34. Attended the Associational missionaries week at Caswell.

35. Printed programs and reports for the Annual Meeting.

36. Traveled 21,865 miles.

I am very grateful for the above opportunities to serve in Little River, for your prayers, encouragement, and support.

If the suggested budget is approved, we will have an office from which to work and be of better service to each of you. We will have in the office some tracts, filmstrips, projectors, books, and many other things to help you do a better job, most of which will be free for the asking; some will be for loan only.

When and if we get in the office, we will resume the mailing of the Associational Bulletin. Here in the small house in which I live, with sickness that we have, it has been impossible for me to keep you informed about materials and the work of our Association and Denomination as I would have liked to have done.

I firmly believe that Associational Missions is the basis of all other missions. What we do through Associational Missions largely determines what we will do for other missions. The Association was the first organization of Baptist work. Unless dedication, personnel, and money come from the Association, we will not have them in the other phases of missions. Light must shine at home if it shines away.

Respectfully submitted,
Julius Holloway

8. W. A. Johnson, associational treasurer, was recognized for his report which was adopted as follows:

9. Jeff Roberts, associational chorister, was recognized; and he called attention to the State Music Department, announced a Church School of Music in the Dunn First Church October 31-November 4, invited those present to attend. After which, he led the messengers in singing a hymn.

10. In the absence of Dr. L. H. Campbell, chairman of Christian Education, the moderator read the report. It was spoken to by E. P. Russell and adopted as follows:

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Certainly no one in this company of intelligent Baptists can question the reality of the three following conditions in our denominational life that cannot with impunity be overlooked in reaching a wise decision as to our future program of Christian education:

1. We have now reached a tremendously important crossroads in our denominational life: a point at which we are inescapably forced to reach a decision or decisions within a period of a few weeks, or months, that can shape our denominational destiny for years to come.

This is true, in the first place, because the Nine Year Program, adopted in 1951, to accelerate our total Baptist world-wide endeavor has lived out its authorized existence this year. Even in anticipation of its date of expiration, and because of insistent pressures brought upon the Convention for the creation of new area institutions and agencies, in 1956 Baptists created the Committee of Twenty-five and later authorized it to project an over-all study of our denominational program on a long-range basis. The exciting proposals submitted by the Committee of Twenty-five at the Special Convention in the Spring of 1959, projecting tremendous advances in all areas of our Baptist work, are of common knowledge among all of us. Even more wonderful is the fact that North Carolina Baptists adopted with great unanimity the entire program, with only minor changes in technical procedures. Furthermore, still not fully satisfied with the status of our Christian education program in the light of the critical national emergency, the Convention last year appointed a new committee to study the needs of our colleges and to make recommendations to the 1960 Convention. The hour of decision is fast approaching.

2. A second conclusion, which seems equally obvious, is that to-day education is indispensable to the security and success of all our constructive agencies for human welfare, as well as to the well-being of our youth of succeeding generations.

As a nation, we were rudely alerted to this truth by the pioneering Russian sputniks, but the dramatic portrayal of amazing Baptist progress in North Carolina from 1932 to 1958 in the Committee of Twenty-five report cannot be accounted for apart from the contribution of our unparalleled system of seven Baptist colleges. Every political party, every industrial and labor organization, and every influential religious denomination, stands for education, if for no other reason, as a means of survival.

3. Based upon initial expressions of surprise from all sides, there can be no doubt that the Committee on Advance Program for Baptist Colleges has presented us for consideration at the 1960 Convention a very sizable, challenging program.

Quite frankly, this committee faced two all-important questions in reaching their latest recommendation: (1) What is the maximum amount of money required to expand the colleges to provide more nearly for what share Baptists should have in our state's educational program and at the same time enable each college to provide quality education. In order to be realistic in answer to this question, the committee arrived at the conviction that $45,000,000 was the minimum amount needed. (2) In a further effort to be realistic, the committee pondered long upon whether Baptists could and would raise this unprecedented amount. Again, the majority opinion prevailed that Baptists could be most greatly challenged by a big program that should provide the basis for a great system of colleges, rather than by a smaller amount that at best would be a temporary, patch-work program.

Respectfully submitted,
L. H. Campbell

11. Vice-moderator was asked to assume the chair. He recognized E. Weldon Johnson for an address on P.O.A.U. (Church State Separation) which appears as follows:

Church and State Must Stay Separate

Scripture: Matt. 22:15-22.

You remember that when the disciples were hauled in for preaching the gospel of Jesus by those who would silence them, they replied, "We ought to obey God rather than man". In another place Jesus said, " Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and unto God that which is God's".

There are two great freedoms that have challenged the lives of men for all time. They are political liberty and religious or soul liberty. No one can separate these two liberties; they belong together and must ever be. There can be no genuine religious liberty without political liberty, and such a thing as political liberty is utterly impossible without religious freedom; the two cannot be separated. And so the desire for freedom has been the battle-cry of men through the years. How it thrills our hearts to sing Francis Scott Key's words:

" Oh say can you see by the dawn's early light what so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
And the rockets red glare, wild bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that Star Spangled Banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?"

It was Patrick Henry who gave voice to the conviction of the heart of every freedom-loving person when he said, " Is life so dear or peace so sweet as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"

Dr. L. L. Swatney, for a long time editor of the Alabama State Baptist paper, in a book which he wrote a few years ago entitled, The World's Greatest Decade, the decade between the '40's and '50's, says this: " From the time that Church and State were united under Constine in 325, nowhere on earth were they ever separated until 1663 in Providence Colony, when one of our Baptist forefathers by the name of Roger Williams took the leadership in guaranteeing religious liberty to people in the colony. It was a hundred years later, in 1786, that Virginia adopted such a law. Then in 1791 it was incorporated in the Bill of Rights." Actually the Bill of Rights is responsible for what we are as Baptist people today. If you want to understand something of the marvelous growth and the reason why Baptist in America have increased so rapidly in number and in leadership, you will have to go to the Bill of Rights. Given that same safe-guard and freedom anywhere else on earth today the same would be duplicated.

Now I know that there are those who say that it was not Roman Catholics who harried Roger Williams. These say it was not our Roman friends who persecuted our brethen in Virginia. Let me remind you that the English church had not been freed of the Roman influence, and that the church of England had maintained the same forms and much of the organizations, and that it did not believe in separation of church and state. The hierarchical influence still dominated.

In our day we are confronted with " a religious issue", not because of a man, a candidate for office, but because of the system of which he is a part, and to which he belongs, unless he repudiates that system; and this he has not done and cannot do.

To say that there is no religious issue is to evade a fact, for the church of Rome, as a church and as a temperal State, engages in political and secular matters as a part of her inherent nature and policy.

About all of us have friends and neighbors of the Catholic, Jewish, and other faiths to whom we are deeply devoted at the personal level. We love them, can have social fellowship with them, honor and respect them. And where Roman Catholics truly accept Jesus Christ as the Son of God and personal Saviour, we recognize them as fellow Christians, despite the many doctrinal and ecclesiastical evils to which their church is a party.

But we shall be woefully negligent if we fail to take past and present history into account. For, there is abroad today an alarming indifference to existing realities and a pseudo tolerance which is not tolerance but ignorance.

Attached to this writing is a copy of the publisher's review of Geddes McGregor's book, Vatican Revolution. It should be read by every American. It sets forth a strong impulse for those who place emphasis on the individual and oppose centarilized authority.

The following is a copy of the publisher's evaluation of the book, The Vatican Revolution, by Geddes McGregor as found on the inside cover:

" On Monday morning, 18 July 1870, in St. Peter's in Rome occurred " the momentous decision in the history of the Roman Church," according to Geddes McGregor. At that time and place, the first Vatican Council in 300 years culminated seven months of deliberation—and of high-powered political negotiating and open controversy—in a decision made by a vote of 533 to 2, with 106 members deliberately absent and not voting: " We teach and define that it is a dogma divinely revealed: that the Roman Pontiff, when he speaks ex cathedra.. is possessed of...infallibility..."

Thus for the first time was the doctrine of papal infallibility made the official teaching of the Church; and in this act, says MacGregor, was sounded the death knell of the democratic element in the Roman Catholic tradition. Moreover, the course of official Church policy from 1870 on has been powerfully influenced towards anti-democratic positions in many areas by the action of that Vatican Council—just as many thoughtful members of the Council foresaw that it would happen. If we are to understand present and future plans of the hierarchy in a free country like America, then it is essential, MacGregor holds, to be aware of the historical background in detail—and this he sets out to present in the most colorful language.

This is a book which should find a warm welcome in the hands of Protestants who traditionally place a strong emphasis upon the importance of the individual human being; and also among liberal Catholics who in our day—as did many in 1870—oppose the authoritarianism in Roman policy.

Here is a book of the most sedulous scholarship which nevertheless is riotous with color, rich in personalities, and vibrant with life. That first tremendous scene, the largest church in the world—St. Peter's, where Charlemagne was crowned—packed with high church dignitaries in gorgeous colors and thronged with spectators, while outside the dark and storm-filled sky over Rome is ripped by lightning...The aged (78) Pope Pius IX confirming the Council's decision..." Then like the murmur of the sea before it breaks itself into tumultuous uproar on the rocks, came the throbbing voice of the crowds of Italian spectators, bursting as if one the very Rock of Peter, into a tremendous shout of exultant applause: Viva Pio Nono, Papa infallible!"

Yet McGregor writes with implacable honesty and complete fearlessness: he holds that the Vatican Council was unconstitution; that infallibility had not been a continually accepted tradition of belief within the Church; that the Papal forces stacked the Council and that it was not representative: for instance out of the 541 prelates from Europe, " The Italian peninsula, with population of 27 millions, was represented by 276, 11 more than the whole of the rest of the continent including Britain and Ireland."

Here is a compelling treatment of a subject of gravest interest to everyone interested in religious freedom and it is of the most pointed significance for our own time.

Here seems to have happened within the Roman Hierarchy exactly the same sort of totalitarian coup that many would-be and active dictators seek to affect.

We perhaps can best understand our present situation if we review what we believe. What are the protestant distinctives which are of such vital importance, historically, doctrinally, and politically?

Protestantism was born through faith, founded in conviction, sustained in adversity, nurtured through Christian doctrine and propogated by a spirit-inspired courage.

Protestantism, and especially Baptist, is characterized by distinctives so clear that they themselves have erected a wall between the spiritually free and those ecclesiastically bound. Martin Luther was shaking off the Pope's shackles when he said, "My conscience is taken captive by God's word." He knew the only freedom came as one became a slave of Jesus. He said, "It is not safe or right to act against conscience. God help me. Amen."

Four hundred and thirty-nine years later, we Protestants in America stand in the greatest danger of forgetting the liberty which has been ours from the beginning, a freedom that rests deep in the word of God, for which men crossed seas, and died, for without it life would not be worth living anyway, as Patrick Henry said.

Perhaps we could do nothing better than examine our Protestant distinctives, for here is the positive side of this great issue.

In the first place we believe in the final authority of the Bible as over against the final authority of the Church (its teaching office centered in the Pope, and his follows, as the seat of revelation and divine administration). In the former way the conscience is free to receive and act on the leading of the Holy Spirit as He speaks through the divinely inspired word. In the latter there is interposed between man and his Maker an organization which claims for itself, independent of the Holy Scriptures, divine authority over the minds, consciences, and wills of men.

There are two concepts of the church. We hold that churches are in the world to witness to the world. The other concept is that the church is in the world to eventually conquer as an ecclesiastical organization. We obey the command, "and ye shall be my witnesses." We witness to the message of Christ, crucified and risen on the faith that the Holy Spirit will take that message and transform lives. The second concept is upon ecclesiastical power. The worship is formal, involved, and sacramental. Far too many Protestants have gone too far down this road and such congregations are not too much concerned about having a Catholic for president, says Dr. L. Nelson Bell.

Another distinctive of our Protestant heritage affirms the separation of Church and State; rendering unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's. We believe that the influence of the Christian citizen as a citizen should be the channel through which the Christian ethic is implemented in society.

The Roman church holds a doctrine that the State is the temporal arm of the church, and therefore an agency of the church. The state is a means of carrying out the church's laws and should finance its program. This is born out by the fact that the American Roman Catholic hierarchy stated in the New York Times on November 21, 1948, that our doctrine of separation of church and state is a "shiboleth of doctrinare secularism," which it is prepared to work, "patiently, peaceably, and perservingly to change."

In May 18, 1960, L'Osservatore Romana, the Vatican paper affirmed the "duty and right to guide, direct, and correct Catholics in politics." This is being done wherever a country becomes 51% Catholic. If you doubt this, ask Protestants in Montreal, Quebec and Eastern Canada, Puerto Rico, and elsewhere. The constitution of Argentina, Paraguay, Spain, and other countries state that a man to be president must be a Catholic. Right now the Bishops in Puerto Rico are forcing people to vote against a governor because they can't get out of him what they want. This was on television immediately following the last Kennedy and Nixon debate on last Friday, October 20.

In the United States the Catholic church tells its people how to vote. Even Clara Booth Luce, a Roman Catholic, is saying in McCalls for November, that Catholics will vote for the Catholic candidate. It is reported that Mike De Salle of Ohio said that Catholics will vote for Kennedy and stupid Protestants will elect him, and we will.

In education the Catholics have gotten tax money for bus transportation, welfare, which to them is coal for heat, etc. Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis on June 6 of this year issued a directive which stated, "No student may attend a non-Catholic college or University unless he or she has obtained written permission", from him, which he grants only in rare cases.

In California the Christian Brothers, Monks, are a large liquor, brandy, distiller. They owe a million and three quarters in taxes to our government and refuse to pay it. They say it is, "A tax-free religious organization."

If Kennedy is elected, Mike Mansfield will be leader of the senate, John McCormick, who rammed through bills sending thirty-one millions to the Roman Church outside continental United States, will be house leader. A slick move pulled on blind Lyndon Johnson to make our country solid Roman Catholic at the top, says Nelson Bell. Luther, Calvin, Cromwell, and Roger Williams will be turning in their graves, for whereas George Washington made nine appointments, the next president will appoint 25,000.

Tolerant, indifference, or ignorant Protestant cry, "Times have changed; distinctives of the past are blurred in the realities of today." This is true of Protestants, but not of Rome, for Rome never changes except for the worse.

I hesitate to present a gory picture which makes cold sweat pop out on me. But in the last eight years, not 800, in Columbia, forty-nine Protestant churches have been destroyed; 34 confiscated, and 89 Protestant leaders murdered, with no protest from the Pope nor Catholic leaders even in the United States. Oppression goes on here where Catholics are in majority as Emmet McLaughlin, a former Franciscian priest tells us in his book, People's Padre, and American Freedom, and Catholic Schools.

Another Protestant distinctive is man's justification by faith alone, by Him who has made us free, a doctrine rooted in our Bible. The Roman church has a system of works, the same kind of indulgences which Tetzel peddled in Luther's day, a penny puts out a coal in hell if paid to the priest. She, The Roman Catholic Church, demands conformity on pains of damnation and we are, in their eyes, false churches and lost.

In the fourth place we believe in the mediatorship of Jesus, and His alone. In Him we believe, to Him we turn, in His name we pray, His merits we claim; His cleansing we receive; His blood atones. We reject the idea that between God and us there can be interposed any other than the Son of God who came to reconcile us to God. No Pope, no priest, nor Mary, who has been elevated by men with natural urges, a woman becomes God, who though she was mother of Jesus, she was still only a human being. No man can forgive sin.

Only when Protestants and evangelicals emerged did men even enjoy freedom of soul and liberty in matters of religion. Rome today demands tolerance only until she herself can exercise intolerance, freedom until she gets the power to enslave. Look at the lack of education, ignorance, superstition and poverty in Spain, Latin America, Portugal, and Italy, where paganism passes for true religion and where communism finds its "easiest pickings." The Catholic system and communism are vastly similar in operation that it makes them enemies, but it also makes it easy for people to cross from one to the other.

My friends, the hope of our world rests now upon Southern Baptist, and almost on them alone. Let us stand true and move swiftly knowing that "if the Son shall make men free, then are they free indeed."

(For material used in this paper I am indebted to Dr. Nelson Bell, Montreat, N. C. and his paper, "Protestant Distinctives and the American Crisis." I am also indebted to Henry A. Parker, pastor of First Baptist Church, Orlando, Fla., and to materials from P.O.U. and others.)

16. In the absence of Dr. A. W. Peede the clerk made the motion that his report as printed be adopted and the time be given to Dr. W. K. McGee, which report was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON BAPTIST HOSPITAL

The situation is this: (1) The costs of care of service patients (those who must have financial assistance) in 1959 was $780,435.40, with no charge made for professional services of physicians, beyond insurance payments. To pay this costs, the hospital had $449,606.58 from the following sources: Welfare funds, $186,613.13; gifts, mostly from individuals, $23,645.06; Duke Endowment, $24,942; and the Mother's Day Offering, $214,406.39. Money spent above the funds available was $195,593.61. (2) Although room rates for private patients were increased and employees continued to work for less than they could earn in comparable institutions, there was not enough money to pay the $195,593.61. The operating loss for the year was $17,144.05 with no allowance for depreciation. (This year the Hospital Trustees felt compelled to establish the 40-hour work week and the 75-cent minimum wage, a change which affected 900 employees and resulted in increased costs.)

The Baptist of our State established the Hospital because they wanted a place where our people could get care when they needed the facilities of a modern hospital. Christian charity is its heart, and the bigness of this heart is shown in the fact that 40% of its work is for service patients. There is no reason to expect the need for this service to decrease. Instead, it is bound to continue to grow, for:

1. Approximately 20% of the white population of North Carolina lives on a total family income of less than $1,000.

2. The number of older people increases every year. Many have only small Social Security or Old Age Assistance incomes, while many others have nothing. Unless they have help, they cannot get good medical care.

3. Families in medium and lower income groups can carry their loads under normal circumstances but when disaster comes in the form of long illnesses, injuries of critical nature, the necessity of difficult surgery, or other conditions requiring costly treatment and care, they cannot handle the added burden.

These facts lead to the one conclusion that the Hospital must have more money if it is to continue taking care of those who need its help, and this money can come only through increased giving by the churches. (The Hospital receives 3.75% of the Co-operative Fund--a total of $129,605.11 in 1959--but this money is pledged for capital expenditures--such as payments on new buildings and equipment.)

The Hospital is a modern medical center to serve all our people. In 1959, 65% of the patients were Baptists and they came from every part of the state. In their home communities, others received the care of doctors, nurses, and technicians who were trained at the Hospital and the Bowman Gray School of Medicine. Everywhere, Baptists enjoy better health and happier lives because of medical research done at their medical center.

If each church will shoulder its responsibility in a realistic manner, the financial problem of providing a continued growing service for the needy sick will be solved without hardship for any individual or congregation.

17. Brother Leonard Thomas was recognized for the report on Baptist Childrens Homes. Dr. I. G. Greer spoke to the report which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON BAPTIST CHILDRENS HOMES

The Baptist Childrens Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated, is a multiple service agency providing Christian love and nurture for more than 800 deserving boys and girls annually.

This institution is owned and operated by the Baptist State Convention and is Governed by a Board of Trustees consisting of 18 members elected by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. It renders service to the dependent and neglected white children of the state in three types of child care; namely, Institutional Care, Aid in the Home, and Foster Home Care. The Institution is licensed by the State Board of Public Welfare to place children in foster homes.

The three homes are: Mills Home at Thomasville with 311 children, Kennedy Home at Kinston with 165, and the Odum Home at Pembroke with 24 children.

Intake Policies: children of school age are admitted to institutional care; pre-schoolers must be cared for in the foster home unit. The child accepted for care is the "normal" dependent child. (The mentally and physically handicapped child requires a special type of care with workers especially equipped to meet their needs.) There are no different requirements for admission of a child born out of wedlock.

There are 160 children in Foster Homes and 40 others who are assisted by Mother's Aid. Case work supervision is afforded 30 college students annually.

Children attend public school and participate in all school activities. Opportunities for Christian commitment and spiritual growth are afforded on the campuses, in the cottages, and through the churches.

Relatives, pastors, social service agencies, and interested friends make inquiries about admission of children in need of care. When applications are received, well trained case workers make a thorough study of each situation to determine the need and the best possible plan of care for the child.

The Social Service Department of the Children's Homes affords case work services throughout the state. Individuals, families, pastors, and churches are entitled to this help upon request.

The Baptist child care program is supported through the Co-operative Program 31.5 per cent, Thanksgiving Offerings 31.1 per cent, Once a Month Offerings 21.9 per cent, Special Gifts and Endowment 15.5 per cent.

Income for the past three years has not been sufficient to meet minimum needs. Many children have been denied a Christian home whom we should have served. An increased Thanksgiving Offering is imperative this year.

North Carolina Baptist have been caring for homeless and dependent children for 75 years. Appropriate observance of the 75th Anniversary will be made in November. During these years, more than 8,000 children have been afforded life's best opportunities. The need for such services increases with the development of industry, increase in population, growth of cities, and the mounting tensions which accrue to families in an urbanized society.

A person, or agency, wishing to make application should write to Dr. W. R. Wagoner, general superintendent, Baptist Children's Homes, Thomasville, N. C. Upon receipt of the inquiry he will forward application blank, requesting that when it is returned it be accompanied by a letter giving the family history and the present situation. Pastor of the family should sign the application with the applicant.

John E. Roberts became editor of Charity and Children, June 1, 1960. We invision under his editorship this paper making an increasing contribution to the total life of our Baptist people.

North Carolina Baptist will continue to love and serve dependent children. No other object is so worthy of service and sacrifice. Many areas of unmet need confront us each day. Your continued interest and increasing support will help us meet them.

Leonard Thomas

18. Brother Jeff Roberts led the messengers in singing a hymn after which he rendered special music, "The Ninety and Nine."

19. Brother R. V. McNeill was recognized for the report on Baptist Homes for the Aging. Rev. W. A. Poole spoke to the report which was adopted as follows:

BAPTIST HOMES FOR THE AGING

God's gift to the Homes for the Aging during the past nine years has been James M. Hayes, Sr. No man could have worked harder and accomplished more than this dedicated man of God. On July 1, he relinquished the heavy and challenging responsibilities of the office of general superintendent to his successor, William A. Poole.

The new superintendent is already at work finding a solid foundation on which to build and expand the ministry of the aging in our midst.

Great blessings are in store for us in this tenth year of our Homes for the Aging. The new Infirmary Annex, constructed at a cost of $193,000, and with 28 new rooms, are already in use. In addition to these rooms, there is a nurse's station, lounge and rest room, a solarium, a room with an autoclave for the sterilization of instruments, three baths, a laundry room and a utility room. It is hoped that the construction of the Proposed new Hamilton Home can be started by late summer, with facilities for around 30 additional residents. Our hats off to all who have given so liberally and worked so tirelessly in bringing this fourth home to fulfillment!

At present, there are 60 applicants on the waiting list, and new inquiries and applications are coming in almost daily. We have a total of 106 residents in our three Homes--Albemarle 34; Headquarters 52; Rest Haven 20. Even with our new facilities, it is not unrealistic to say that we could fill up to 500 rooms in the next two years. We must attempt great things for God and expect great things from God as we plan for the future in our ministry to the ever growing number of the aging who need the loving care of N. C. Baptists.

One of the life-lines in our work is the vital relationship that we have with the pastors and S. S. Superintendents and the churches in our convention. We could not operate without this very important life-line. We are increasingly dependent upon the prayers and financial support of our churches. During this past year we received $82,521.20 from the churches--all but around $6,000 came through the Special Day Offering in February. We received $39,635.19 through the Cooperative Program. We are profoundly grateful to God and to everyone of you who contributed to this worthy cause which we represent.

We shall welcome a visit to the Homes from you, our fellow Baptist, at any time. We stand ready at all times to render the kind that God has called us to render to the aging.

Let it be known throughout the bounds of our fair state that there is nothing to hinder any needy aging person in our midst from coming to the North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging except lack of space. Let us, therefore, dedicate ourselves to the end of making more space available at the earliest possible moment.

Respectfully submitted,
R. V. McNeill

20. Brother G. Scott Turner was recognized for the report on Ministers Retirement. He spoke to the report which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON THE MINISTER'S PROTECTIVE PLAN

Our Lord was speaking expressly, about the duty of providing for the needs of the ministers of the Gospel when He said, " The labourer is worthy of his hire." Lk. 10:7

Practically all large business enterprises recognize that the labourer is worthy of his hire and make provision for the care of their employees in old age as well as remunerating them for present labors.

The churches have labourers who are worthy of their hire. Chief among these are the pastor and his wife. Shall Christians be concerned less about their welfare of those who labor for them than secular organizations are about their employees?

Yet many of our churches in this Association and over the Convention territory make no provision for the care of their ministers in old age or their widows in case of death.

The Southern Baptist Protection Plan of the Annuity Board is, no doubt, the best means for a church to give their pastor and family security. The costs of this plan is 15 per cent of the pastor's salary. The State Convention pays the first 5 per cent. The pastor and the church pay the other 10 per cent. Many churches pay all this last amount, but in some cases the church pays 5 per cent and the minister 5 per cent.

Full information may be obtained by writing The Annuity Board, Southern Baptist Convention, 511 North Akard, Dallas 1, Texas or Rev. Tom Greene, Baptist Building, 301 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh, North Carolina.

G. Scott Turner

21. Brother George McCotter was recognized for the report on Christian Literature. Marse Grant spoke to the report which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON BAPTIST LITERATURE

Southern Baptists have grown to be as large as they are because they have used the printed literature made available to the home and the individual by the Southern Baptist Convention, the State Convention and the local churches. Because we have used the New Testament as the basis of our faith and practices and the Bible as our textbook, we, as Baptists, have available today literature of the highest quality.

Through the use of the Bible, God's servants have learned to help renew the minds of men and lead them to develop Christ-like qualities. If you call a plumber to repair your plumbing, you would expect him to bring plumber's tools in order to do a good job. If we as Christians expect to do the job that Christ commissioned us to do, we too must use the best tools that can be obtained. We must know how to use them when we attempt to do this work. The tools for us to use first are the Bible and the Christian literature which has been made available to us. Let us start by being an informed people. Paul, even though in prison, wrote for books. Paul, even though he had been preaching for a number of years, wanted books. Paul, even though he had seen Jesus, wanted books.

My Christian friends, today we are not reading enough. Especially are we not reading enough of Christian literature. How fortunate we are that over 900,000 Baptists today in North Carolina have available at a very moderate price the Biblical Recorder. Every Baptist home should have this, and every church should see, also, that every Baptist home has Charity and Children. Other Christian printed literature such as quarterlies, magazines, pamphlets, posters and tracts may be obtained from various agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention. We are reminded that Paul said to Timothy: "Till I come, give attention to reading...." One of the prophets said: "My people perish for the lack of knowledge." The opposite of knowledge is ignorance. A few days ago Brother I. G. Greer said that the most expensive thing in the world today is ignorance. A truer statement has never been made. We are aware that ignorance of Jesus means death. If this world is saved, it will be saved through faith and belief, and these come through knowledge. Knowledge comes through reading. What type of knowledge will you have? Every home should have and read God's word, the Holy Bible.

George McCotter

22. The clerk was asked to assume the chair which he did and recognized Walter F. Gentry for the report on Evangelism. Brother Gentry spoke to the report which was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

There was never a time when the Gospel of Jesus Christ was not urgent, but many Christians have been slow to sense it. If circumstances can shock us out of complacency, then every Christian should be alerted today to the urgency of evangelism in this Atomic Age.

Southern Baptists have been blessed by God as few people have been blessed in all Christian history. However, along with these blessings there are inexcapable responsibilities. We are Christians, and we must share with those who are not Christians. We are the children of the Light, and we must share with those who sit in darkness. In his message before the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Miami Beach, Florida, Billy Graham said, " America is the worlds greatest mission field." If this be true, and no doubt it is, and if Southern Baptist are the leading Evangelical denomination in America, we must match this hour with total dedication to Evangelism.

Your Associational officers are greatly encouraged over the fact that a fewer number of our churches reported no baptisms during this year than last.

We offer the following recommendations:

1. That a perennial program of Evangelism be promoted in every church by the pastor and the head of each department of work in the church known as the church council

2. That we adopt and strive to reach the Evangelism Standard of Excellence in our Association.

3. That we cooperate with the Jubilee Advance Program of Southern Baptist.

1961 Stewardship and Enlistment-----1962 Church Extension
1963 World Missions--------1964 Third Jubilee Celebration

4. That our Association have an Evangelistic Clinic February 20, 1961, under the direction of Brother Julian Hopkins, secretary of our State Department of Evangelism.

5. That instead of having simultaneous Jubilee Revivals in our Association each year as suggested between now and 1964, we plan for such campaigns the last two weeks in March 1962, and in cooperation with the Jubilee Celebration March 8-22, 1964.

Respectfully submitted,
Walter F. Gentry

23. At the miscellaneous business session, committee meetings were announced. Brother G. Scott Turner was recognized for a discussion of the Jubilee Celebration. After discussion, brother Turner presented a resolution which was adopted as follows:

THE BAPTIST JUBILEE CELEBRATION

Whereas the year 1964 marks the 150th anniversary of organized Baptist work in the North American Continent.

And whereas the seven major Baptist groups in this territory which have 18,000,000 members have united in plans for a five-year celebration of this important event through which various phases of our work are emphasized,

Therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the Little River Association earnestly urge each church to take part in the Jubilee Advanced Program by diligent participation during the year 1961 in the matters emphasized for that year which are:

1. Win the lost to Christ.

2. To lead each Christian regardless of his employment or vocation to witness for Christ in his daily work.

3. To lead youth and young adults to seek God's will in the choice of a church-related vocation.

4. To lead all church members to find a place of service in the church.

5. To secure transfer of church membership of each non-resident church member to a Baptist church in his community.

6. To magnify the place of the home in stewardship education.

7. To emphasize increased giving with the tithe as a minimum.

8. To lead churches to recognize and accept their stewardship responsibility for the spread of the Gospel throughout the world.

9. To develop attitudes of Christian stewardship in the making of wills.

Respectfully submitted,
G. Scott Turner

24. Upon motion made and duly seconded, the session adjourned to meet the following day, October 26, at 9:20 a.m. with the Holly Springs Church.

25. The Association reconvened at 9:20 a.m. October 26, at the Holly Springs Church with devotional, Jeff Roberts in charge of the music and Julian Motley scripture, comments and prayer.

26. In the business session that followed the moderator recognized the visitors and called for announcements.

27. Brother H. C. Upchurch was recognized for the report and discussion of the American Bible Society, which report was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

" Two thousand tongues to go," has been a goal towards which the American Bible Society has been striving in its effort to get the Word of God out to the spiritually starving billions of lost souls the world around. There are about two thousand languages and dialects spoken in the world into which the Bible has never been translated. And yet Christ gave the commandment almost two thousand years ago to carry the Good News of Salvation into all the world. The American and foreign Bible societies have been trying for years to fill this great need but are limited for lack of money. What a shame that we who are called Christians waste so much on things that are not telling the world about Christ our Saviour.

The world's population is growing at the rate of forty-nine million a year, but the output of all Bible societies is only thirty million per year. The distribution in Africa has at last reached 2,481,922 volumns; but this was for a continent with 189,065,000 people and 3,063,400 church members. Dr. G. Kiano, a young political leader in Kenya province, said in August of last year that the churches in Africa were losing their influence and said, " I fear it will be too late in five year's time."

Africa and India, former " sleeping giants," are waking up & are crying for a place in the federation of man; and they will not wait. Russia is pouring about four million communist books into India per year, and the increase continues. A grandson of Gandi said, " The missionaries taught us to read, but the Communists gave us books."

Let us increase our gifts to the Bible Societies so that the dying peoples of the world may have light to live and die by.

Go ye into all the world with the good news of salvation.

Respectfully submitted,
H. C. Upchurch

28. Mrs. D. B. Andrews was recognized for the report on World Missions. She called attention to the report as printed and requested that the time be given to the speakers as listed in the Order of Business, which report was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON WORLD MISSIONS

"Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the world." Acts 1:8.

Beginning at Jerusalem, let us think briefly about the work in our own association. Since our Southern Baptist Convention set a goal of 30,000 new churches and missions during this period, our association has established two. Antioch Church started a mission on the Johnsonville Road. I attended a service in this mission recently. They have an enrollment of 78 in Sunday School. They meet in a nice brick building with a total of 11 rooms. Mr. W. F. Gentry, pastor at Antioch, preaches there at 10:00 a.m. each Sunday morning, after which Sunday School is held.

The Lillington Church started a mission out on the Prison Camp Road. That also is a neat brick structure. They have services on the second and fourth Sundays. A visit to these missions would prove a rewarding experience.

We would pay tribute to our Associational Missionary, Rev. Julius Holloway, who labors so faithfully among us.

Missionaries working in the 78 associations within our state number 60. These are giving a great service to the work of the association.

State Missions is the missionary effort on the part of North Carolina Baptists to reach the unsaved for Christ and to teach, enlist and train the saved in giving, living, and service through the churches and throughout the world.

There are more than 4,600,000 people in our state. It is estimated that about 60 per cent of these above 8 years of age are lost. If so, North Carolina is not half Christian. It is a mission field.

In the departments of Church Development and Aid for New Churches many weak and needy churches have become self-sustaining. Dr. E. L. Spivey, director of the Division of Missions in North Carolina, receives many expressions of gratitude for help to such churches.

Through Pastoral Aid, many churches are able to secure trained leadership. As a result more people are won to Christ and enlisted in the program of our churches.

Missionaries working on Home Mission Fields now number 2,192 according to Home Mission Board Secretary, Courts Redford. This figure includes missionaries appointed jointly by the board and state conventions, and shows an increase of 192 during the past six months.

Southern Baptists, through the 30,000 Movement, have been given a bold and daring challenge that meets today's needs of changing and enlarging population. The accomplishment of this goal will thrust forward the work of Southern Baptists. Let us pray that its work may be effective.

One area which presents unlimited opportunity is that of evangelism. Here we are concerned, and challenges have not been lacking; they have simply failed to capture the average Southern Baptist. The problem is we see goals instead of souls. Somehow, a way must be found to show us lost men and burden our souls for their salvation, rather than for goals, programs and methods.

The Foreign Mission Board at its meeting in September appointed nine missionaries and reappointed two, bringing to 1,459 the number of active missionaries. These are working in 44 countries of the world. The dedication of life so radiantly exhibited by choice servants of God must always be matched by unfailing support on the part of Southern Baptists, so that these men and women can serve as God leads them, fully reinforced for their tasks.

On foreign fields Southern Baptists have more than 1,000 schools. Altogether, there are more than 150,000 enrolled in Baptist Schools abroad.

The budget must likewise provide for medical work. In the 18 hospitals and 80 smaller medical installations on the mission fields, a total of 233,000 people receive attention in a given year. Many of them are won to Christ.

Last year, Southern Baptists gave an average of $1.69 for Foreign Missions! It is difficult to reconcile our loud expressions about missions with this fact of our per capital support of a world-wide witness. Let us begin thinking about solving the spiritual needs of a pagan and idolatrous world with 3,000 Foreign Missionaries and a budget of $30,000,000 a year for the Foreign Mission Board.

This brings us to dedicate ourselves afresh to prayer, stewardship, and faith believing that as we increase our giving through world missions we will be blessed in our work for the Lord both at home and across the world.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. D. B. Andrews

29. Brother R. H. Sorensen of Campbell College was recognized and spoke briefly about our mission to the Baptist College in our own Association.

30. C. M. Hicks, pastor of the host church, was recognized for announcements concerning the noon meal furnished by the Holly Springs Church.

31. Brother Jeff Roberts was recognized for special music. He and Miss Carolyn Watkins sang a duet.

32. Brother Colon Jackson, Jr., preached the missionary sermon, at the conclusion of which he lead in prayer giving thanks for the noon meal furnished by Holly Springs Church.

33. The session reconvened at 1:25 p.m. with devotional period. Brother Jeff Roberts was in charge of music with the Associational Choir and Joseph Creech with scripture, comments, and prayer.

34. Several announcements were made and copies of the message on P.O.A.U. by Weldon Johnson were passed out. These were requested by messengers the day before.

35. Brother Colon S. Jackson, Jr., was recognized for the report on Brotherhood and discussion of it, which report was adopted as follows:

ASSOCIATIONAL BROTHERHOOD REPORT

Our churches face no greater task than the discovery of men and their talents and to enlist them in every phase of the program of the church. This is the purpose of the Brotherhood. The total program of the church suffers if there is no Brotherhood organization to challenge the men in steward, evangelism, missions and boys work.

Now that the Brotherhood organizational structure has changed, there has been a steady increase in the number and enthusiasm. The new structure enables a church to set up a brotherhood with only seven major officers. They are; president, vice-president, secretary, Christian witness leader, personal stewardship leader, world missions leader, and Royal Ambassador leader. Each officer will be responsible for programs and activities in his area.

The new plan presents an open door to develop our men in Christian growth. The Christian witness leader will seek to produce an evangelizing spirit. If the world is going to be won, it will be won by the layman. The world missions leader will challenge and train men to be more mission minded. The personal stewardship leader will endeavor to lead men into a total commitment of life. The new Royal Ambassador program will present a challenge to the men to give of their time, talents, and resources to have a vigorous program of Christian education for our boys.

Our State Brotherhood Department and Associational Organizations will be working together to lift the work of the Brotherhood to its highest level of efficiency.

Respectfully submitted,
Colon S. Jackson, Jr.

36. Mrs. George Souders was recognized for the report on W.M.U. In the absence of Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn, who was sick, Mrs. D. B. Andrews spoke on her trip to Africa Mission Fields. The W.M.U. report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION 1959-1960

We have twenty-four W.M.U. organizations in our Association with nine churches that do not have any organized work. We have a total of 1,100 members with 464 tithers.

We have 877 young people that are members of Sunbeams, G.A.'s, and Y.W.A.'s with 140 tithers.

We had 440 subscribers to Royal Service, 52 to Window of Y.W.A. 195 subscriptions to Tell Magazine, and 35 to Sunbeam Activities.

We had 102 mission study books taught in all organizations with 615 people reading a book.

Our Annual Meeting was held with Friendship Church in March of this year with a good attendance and a very inspiring program.

A Y.W.A. banquet was held in the Lillington Church.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. George Souders

37. Brother L. L. Coats, Sr., was recognized for the report on Training Union and discussion, which report was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON TRAINING UNION

The aim of the Baptist Training Union is: " Training in Church Membership." There is no other department of the church which has this distinctive aim. Our purpose in the Little River Associational Training Union this year has been to aid and encourage the churches to offer " Training in Church Membership" to their people through a strong Training Union program in their churches.

We have tried to do this through the following Associational activities:

1. Associational Church Officers and Committee Clinic in October at Buie's Creek Baptist Church.

2. Officers and Leaders Conference, November 16, at the Harmony Baptist Church. There were 56 people present with nine churches represented. The special emphasis for this meeting was Organization and Standards.

3. " M" Night, December 7, Campbell College Auditorium; there were 427 people present and 21 churches represented. The theme of the program was " Training in Church Membership."

4. Officers and Leaders Conference and Mass Meeting combined, February 21, Buie's Creek Church. There were 73 people present and nine churches represented. The program emphasis was on Audio Visual Aids, and the program of Church Study Course for Teaching and Training.

5. Baptist Youth Night, April 9, at the Lillington Church. There were 225 people present and 18 churches represented. The theme was "Life's Greatest Challenge." The program was planned and presented by the Young People of our Association. Each church was asked to send two youth representatives to the planning meetings, and this group made up the Youth Committee of the Association. They chose Gail Tart of the Dunn First Church as the Intermediate president, and Waverly Atkins of Campbell College as the Young People's president. These two boys worked with the Youth Committee in planning a very fine youth night.

6. Tournament Night, April 11, at the Lillington Church. There were 108 people present and eight churches represented. There were winners in each of the Tournaments who went on to represent our churches at the Regional Tournament which was held later in April. We had Junior Memory Work winners who represented us in the State Tournaments at Caswell.

There is a great need for Training in Church Membership in our Association; and the responsibility to meet this need is placed squarely on the shoulders of the Training Union organizations now existing, and upon the pastors and leaders in the Association. The task is a big one; but with God's help and the support of the people of the Little River Association, we will be able to move closer to the fulfillment of this responsibility in the coming year. We covet the prayers and support of each of you as we continue in this challenging work in our Association.

Respectfully submitted,
L. L. Coats, Sr.

38. Brother C. M. Hicks was recognized for the report on Sunday School and discussion, which report was adopted as follows:

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The theme for 1960 "Teaching Them. . . All things" was a great challenge. Never before in the history of our denomination have we undertaken such a balanced emphasis upon the whole program of Sunday School work.

The over-all theme, "Unto a Full-grown Christian," placed proper attention upon the end product of the work of our churches. Never was there laid before any church such tremendous opportunities for teaching and developing its members. This year we have witnessed the greatest interest in training in our churches that we've ever had. We have had more of our churches applying for Study Course Awards than ever before. In the first nine months fifteen of our churches applied for 901 awards.

This year the Bible Survey Plan was proposed. This plan was designed especially for Sunday School workers but was opened to all interested persons. The purpose was to lead Sunday School workers to survey the main events of the whole Bible, in chronological order. This study has led to several outcomes: (1) It increased Bible reading. (2) It oriented the reader, giving a sort of direction map as he followed the unfolding of Biblical history. (3) It gave the reader a clearer grasp of the hand of God in His dealings with man.

It is reported that all of our churches and one mission had a Vacation Bible School last year. Many of them observed Preparation Day for the first time. One church had a standard Bible School.

Our theme for 1960-61 is "Reaching the Unreached." If every church advances in reaching the unreached, teaching the Word, winning souls, and developing Christians, the Sunday School forces of each church must succeed. Therefore, the following goals are suggested for adoption:

1. Two awards earned per worker in each church.

2. Each Sunday School teacher and officer to set the example by their attendance in Training Union since Bible teaching and membership training go hand in hand

3. Twenty-five churches observing January Bible Study Week, January 2-6, 1961.

4. Twelve hundred Study Course Awards this year.

5. Thirty-five Vacation Bible Schools.

The relationships and responsibilities of Sunday School are too complex to be left to chance or to personal whims of the workers. We are commanded (Isaiah 62:10) to lift up a standard of achievement for our people. Pastors, superintendents, officers, and teachers of our Sunday Schools and our churches will only be as great as our efforts. Multitudes of people are waiting to be reached by your church. God is waiting for us to bestir ourselves and get in the sickle while the Harvest is ready. The challenge is gigantic. Let's accept the challenge with our Lord.

Respectfully submitted,
C. M. Hicks

39. Brother H. H. Hamilton was recognized for report on Social Service and Civic Righteousness, which report was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON SOCIAL SERVICE AND CIVIC RIGHTEOUSNESS

It can be truthfully said that every church in the Little River Association has participated to some extent this year in Social Service and Civic Righteousness. Some of the churches have rendered greater service than others because of greater opportunities and a desire to meet these responsibilities.

We shall not attempt to cover the whole field in Social Service and Civic Righteousness but mention only the following:

1. Delinquency. Delinquency is one of our real problems. Too often we find that delinquent teenagers come from broken homes or delinquent parents. Outside pressures and other interests have reached the stage in our society where there is little time for real home life and parental guidance. The homes where, "We do this because it is right," and, "We do not do this because it is wrong," are fast passing from our communities. We need to get back to the place where parents are parents again with an abiding determination to train their children in the Love and Fear of the Lord.

2. Another ever increasing problem is alcohol. We live in a land where eleven out of every seventeen people use alcoholic beverages in one form or another. One of every eleven who drinks becomes an alcoholic. In America we have 1,200 additional alcoholics every day or fifty more alcoholics every hour that passes. If the church member would get out of this traffic, these numbers would be greatly reduced. It is important that the evils of alcohol be preached in the pulpit, but it is more important that it be lived in the pew. The forces of evil spend millions of dollars every year to keep their product before the people. When have you seen on television a game of baseball, basketball, football, or bowling that wasn't sponsored by brewed on the shores of Chesepeake Bay, or elsewhere? The Christian home, the church, and the school are the only forces trying to combat this evil. Are we winning or losing the battle?

3. We think there has been some improvement in the last few years in the filthy literature that litters our newsstands, but the pornographic filth that comes to our school children each year through the mails is on the increase. Sex in books, magazines, and on the screen is portrayed in such a way as to cheapen and desecrate that which is sacred.

Past and future wars, peace, race relations, and a number of other things might be included in this report, but time and space do not permit here.

Many of our churches support our social service institutions, The Childrens Homes, The Homes for the Aging, and the Baptist Hospitals by special collections. It is hoped that all our churches will participate henceforth. Only about half the membership of our churches supports the church with their means and presents regularly. When these rededicate their lives and the other half is enlisted, the cause of Christ will move forward in a great way.

Respectfully submitted,
H. H. Hamilton

40. The moderator called for the report of the following committees:

1. Time, Place, and Preacher: as follows:
Tuesday, October 24, 1961 with Neill's Creek Church. Doctrinal Sermon to be preached by Donald Bowen, A. Howard Beard alternate.

Wednesday, October 25, 1961, with Coats Church. Missionary Sermon to be preached by C. M. Hicks, Julian Motley alternate.

The committee offered the following recommendations:

1. That it be our expressed ideal to have the second day of our Association on the opposite side of the river from its meeting place on the first day.

2. That the Associational Missionary and Moderator in consultation with, and the consult of, the Executive Committee be allowed to change the place of the annual meeting, if such a change should appear wise and agreeable.

Sam F. Hudson, Chairman
Jack Holt, Scott Turner

The Moderator directed the Committee to serve throughout the year and to bring such suggestions as they deem wise to the Executive Committee during the year.

On motion duly made and seconded the report was adopted.

2. Nominations: which report as adopted appears as directory of these minutes. Nominating Committee made two recommendations:

1. That a committee be appointed to define the duties of Missionary and officers of the Association.

2. That members at large be dropped from Executive Committee. That each pastor and one layman from each church plus Associational officers constitute the Executive Committee.

Recommendation No. 1 referred to the policy committee. Recommendation No. 2 referred to the constitution committee.

3. Finance: Report adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE LITTLE RIVER ASSOCIATION BUDGET COMMITTEE

The 33 churches and two missions in the Little River Association have a wonderful privilege of working together for Christ. This cooperation makes itself known in all areas of our Spiritual Development, especially that of Mission interest.

In the year 1958-59 our Association received from these churches $3,792.37 plus $1,140.00 from the Baptist State Convention. At least twice this year every church has received a copy of an appeal for Financial Help from our Treasurer.

If this situation is to be relieved, every church Must Help by doing a proportionate Share.

The following table has been suggested by the Budget Committee. We have taken into consideration the size and financial income of every church individually. Please consider the RECOMMENDED QUOTA PER MONTH as the proportionate Share from your church as you consider the following Budget:

6. Resolutions--report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Be it resolved:

That the Little River Baptist Association, meeting in its Eighty-fifth Annual Session with the Baptist Grove and Holly Springs Baptist Churches, on October 25 and 26, 1960, with thanksgiving to our God for the many evidences of His Providence, express at this time its gratitude to:

1. The Host churches and their pastors for manifold hospitality.

2. The Program Committee for the informative and spiritual quality of the program.

3. The Moderator, Rev. E. Weldon Johnson, for his efficient handling of the procedure of the Association.

4. The Vice-moderator, Rev. Walter F. Gentry, who ably substituted during the absence of the Moderator from the first afternoon session.

5. Brother Jeff Roberts for the music program of the Association.

6. Mrs. Roy Jones for her service as musician, being called upon without notice.

7. Rev. Julius Holloway for faithful service to the Association as missionary.

8. To all who contributed to the fine Christian spirit which dominated the entire Associational Meeting, with the fervent hope that we shall all carry out this spirit in every realm of the service of Christ in the churches of this Association.

Respectfully submitted,
Charles W. Stafford, Chm.
Eugene Akins
Carolyn Watkins

Be it further resolved:

That we express special thanks for the timely, well-documented address by the Moderator on the separation of Church and State, and to Dunn First Church for making copies of this address available to Association members.

41. Motion made and duly seconded that the committee on admission of new churches remain as last year, namely: E. Weldon Johnson, Walter F. Gentry, Ernest P. Russell, Julius Holloway.

42. The trustees, H. Paul Strickland, Robert Morgan, W. A. Johnson, A. R. Burkot. Mr. Burkot as moderator replaces outgoing Moderator E. Weldon Johnson.

43. Motion made and duly seconded that the minutes be dedicated this year to George H. Britton and W. F. Campbell.

44. Motion made and duly seconded that a committee on dedications be appointed. The Moderator, therefore, appointed E. P. Russell, Jack Holt, and Julius Holloway.

45. In the absence of the newly elected moderator, A. R. Burkot, the outgoing Moderator called upon the newly elected Vice-moderator, H. Paul Strickland to assume the chair for the last item on the to assume the chair for the last item on the agenda.

46. Mrs. Weldon Johnson was recognized for memorials. After reading a list of our beloved dead, which appears elsewhere in the minutes, Mrs. Johnson led in a memorial prayer and benediction ending the 85th Annual Session of the Little River Association.
